STORY IS WRONG AS REGARDS HIM

John Gantner Declares Report he
Was One of Seven Who Would Get Licenses is False.

NEVER CIRCULATED PETITION

Articles Also Intimated he Was a Witness Before Commissioners
at Hearing Wednesday.

John Gantner today complained of the story in the Daily Republican Saturday which said it was reported that he was one of the seven men, from which six would be chosen to get saloon licenses in case Rushville votes "wet," and said the report as regards him is "false and defamatory."

Mr. Gantner says that the story intimated that he was one who circulated a petition for signers and was a witness before the county board of commissioners as to the sufficiency of certain names on said petition, all of which, he asserts, was "false, libelous and defamatory."

He says in his signed statement that the "false and defamatory statements regarding the said John Gantner are injurious to his standing and character in the city of Rushville and community;" that the statements which were made by publication are an injury to his business.

The Republican story based on a report in circulation said that "Practically all of them (meaning the seven men mentioned) circulated petitions for signatures to call an election and they were witnessed last Wednesday, when the commissioners considered the petition, to swear to the signatures of a number of persons which were questioned."

Five of the seven men mentioned—"Jim" Smith, James (Whitie) Barrett, August Roth, Eddie Wolter and Tom Evans—did circulate petitions for the election and were witnesses at the hearing before the commissioners, but John Gantner and John Kelley, former street commissioner, did not circulate petitions and were not witnesses before the commissioners at the hearing on the petitions.

GERMAN NATIVE DEAD AT MANILLA

Mrs. Margaret Kney, Age 75 Years
Widow of Late Michael Kney, Expires of Pneumonia.

FIVE CHILDREN SURVIVE

Mrs. Margaret Kney, 75 years old, widow of the late Michael Kney, died Sunday morning at ten-thirty o'clock at her home near Manilla from pneumonia. Mrs. Kney had been ill for several weeks but was not considered in a serious condition until last Saturday. Mrs. Kney was a native of Germany and came to this country when sixteen years old.

Mrs. Kney is survived by five children, Jacob Kney, Mrs. Minnie Haehl, Mrs. Emma Carr, Mrs. Louis Wending and Mrs. Rosa Willey. The funeral services will be conducted Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock in the German Evangelical church in Shelby county. Burial will take place in the church cemetery.

Charles Worthington is slowly recovering from the effects of a carbuncle on his shoulder which has disabled him since last September.

JUDGE FINDS FOR DEFENDANT

When Fish and Game Commissioner
Fails to Appear, Case Against
John Toolen Fails.

THE JURY IS DISMISSED

He, With Two Others, Was Charged
With Using Dynamite to Kill
Fish in Flatrock.

When Lewis J. Amos, of Brookville, formerly a deputy game warden, did not put in an appearance in the circuit court this afternoon at the trial of John Toolen charged with using dynamite to kill fish, the case was taken from the jury and Judge Sparks found for the defendant.

The presence of Amos as a witness was necessary because he filed the affidavit against Toolen. The jury had heard part of the case and the only other witness for the state was Amos. As a result of his failure to come here a citation will probably be issued asking him to show why he should not be held in contempt of court. A summons was sent to Franklin county for Amos to appear at the trial here and the return shows that it was read to him.

Since Amos filed the affidavit here he has been removed from office by the fish and game warden. With Amos' failure to come here there was nothing for the court to do but discharge the jury and find Toolen not guilty. It was alleged that Toolen in company with Hubert Moser, Tom Keating and Greely Perkins went north of the C. H. & D. bridge over Flatrock and used dynamite to kill fish. The offense is alleged to have occurred May 26, 1914.

Frank Alexander, engineer at the C. H. & D. pumping station testified to seeing the men along the river that day and of hearing an explosion of dynamite. Silas Churchill, 12 years old, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Churchill, testified that he heard the explosion and went over to the scene. He stated that a man, partly bald, was coming out of the water with about twelve fish when he arrived there. He could not identify Toolen as one of the men, but the state contended that the man coming out of the water was Perkins.

The jury which was empaneled to try the case was composed of the following: Ellis Culbertson, W. S. Newhouse, Marshall Green, Frank McCoy, John D. Conaway, Frank S. Keeley, Edwin O. George, E. Z. Williams, Clarence Daubenspeck, John Bowles, William M. Bosley and M. A. McDonald.

Man Charged With Violation of Ordinance Not Ready Today.

The case against Louis Heyeman, of Cleveland, charged with violating the city ordinance regarding peddlers, was continued this afternoon in police court until March 23. Heyeman stated that he was not yet ready for trial and the continuance was granted. Heyeman is alleged to have sold a lot of $10 suits here, making a house-to-house canvass and taking $1 down with each order. He alleged that the sale was not made but the local officials maintain that the sale was made as soon as the dollar deposit was made.

Several local Red Men will go to Connersville tonight at 6:20 over the I. & C. to see some degree work there.

ARRAIGNS THE MORMON CHURCH

Ex-Senator Cannon Reveals Perfidy
of Sect Which Broke its Pledge
With Government.

INSTANCES OF POLYGAMY

Speaker at Two Meetings Here Sunday Refers Briefly to the Liquor Question.

Former United States Senator Frank J. Cannon, the last delegate and the first senator ever elected from Utah, exposed the Mormon church in two addresses in Rushville Sunday, one in the afternoon at men's big meeting at St. Paul's M. E. church and another at night at the union meeting at the Main Street Christian church.

Two resolutions to be presented to congress urging that body to amend the constitution so as to forbid the practice of polygamy and forbid the use of the mails to the literature of the Mormons so long as they teach and encourage polygamy and treason against the government. A vote was taken on the resolutions and practically every person in the audience raised the hand in favor. The resolutions will be sent forward to congress. The thing is being done at every meeting held every day by the ex-senator.

In the afternoon he touched briefly on the liquor question. He had shown the powerful influence the Mormon church has, not only in its own home, Utah, but in a number of other states, and then declared that the church was the largest dispenser of liquor in Utah. The former senator recounted the story of how the W. T. C. U. tried to have a statewide prohibition law passed in Utah.

He said one of the powers in the Mormon church promised the women he would have the legislature pass a such a law and in return the women held a meeting in the Mormon church. At the same time, ex-senator Cannon said he was dubious about results to be obtained because the one who had promised to have the law passed was one of the directors of the place controlled by the church which sold most of the whiskey in Utah. Anyway, the speaker said, the legislature passed the bill, and the prominent Mormon had kept his word, but the head of the Mormon church had the governor veto the bill. This was also to show the political control of the church.

Pausing briefly on the temperance question, the ex-senator said if he should be allowed to pass opinion on the coming election here, he wanted to put the thing plainly; it was simply a question whether "you want to send your boy to hell through the saloon."

"But if you have no son, no brother," he continued, "the moral responsibility rests with you just the same. You will be accountable to God some day. It is just the same as if all of the war makers were put up on the front line and got the first bullets, there would be no war; so, if all of the men who had no sons were made to feel the influence of the saloon by bringing it into their lives directly, there would be no more saloons."

"I admire that man Kent who spoke out in California when the question of the war with Mexico was uppermost. He said that he owned a mine in Mexico and he would like to save it but he would not fight to protect it; neither would he send his son to fight to protect it; he would rather lose the mine. So, he concluded, he would not ask any other man or any other man's son to fight to protect his property."

The ex-senator said that probably

WILL DESTROY "WET" BUSINESS

Rev. A. D. Batchelor Says Saloons
Can Not Come Back if They Are Defeated Twice Straight

HE CITES PROOF OF THIS

Rev. C. M. Yocum Says Only 71 of 438 Signing "Wet" Petition for
Election Paid Taxes

Ministers of the city in their sermons Sunday morning discussed the approaching local option election. Rev. C. M. Yocum of the Main Street Christian church cited the fact that only 71 of the 438 petitions for a local option election paid taxes last year.

The Rev. A. D. Batchelor of St. Paul's M. E. church argued that if the saloons were defeated this time they would not attempt to come back and cites cases in proof of this. He held that the saloon element was lawless and to legalize their business did not make them regard the element any better. The sermons follow:

St. Paul's M. E.

Yesterday morning at the Methodist church the Rev. A. D. Batelor preached a temperance sermon on "Loosening the Law." The text was Heb. 1:4, "The law is slackened." He said in part:

"No text could be found which is more applicable to the liquor traffic. It is a trade which disregards the laws which have been made to restrict it. As a class, the liquor men do not pretend to keep the law. If the territory is 'dry' it is the same defiance of law. They even brazenly affirm that the law cannot be enforced against the trade. This carries with it the most severe indictment of the traffic. It is equivalent to saying that in the liquor business there is a class of criminals who intend to carry on their business whether the law forbids it or not."

"It is a frank avowal of a law-defying traffic. This is the real meaning of their statement that the law cannot be enforced in 'dry' territory. Lawlessness is characteristic of the trade from the brewery down to the 'boot-legging joint'. In the trial of 'boot-legging' the presence of brewery agents is conspicuous. Brewery agents also readily furnish bail for those criminals. This is proof enough that the brewery is behind all this lawlessness, abetting and encouraging it."

"In view of their lawlessness it would be a mistake to vote them back into power. When they set themselves above the law, and do business in defiance of the law, they should be regarded as dangerous citizens, like any other outlaw, and should be given no privilege in the form of a license, lest their power of outlawry increase. They will not keep the law any better after they get a license than they will before it. What they need is not a legal permit to sell liquor to make them reputable citizens, but a change of heart toward all law. If we desire to keep the peace of our city and the safety of our streets, then let us not legalize a gang of outlaws such as the liquor men of this city have proved themselves to be."

"It will be a decided gain to keep them out for the following reasons: 1. When the Saloon is kept out the lawless liquor element is disorganized so that it does not become the moral menace it otherwise would. A saloon represents a financial investment in the interest of which the owners organize. It is harder to overthrow them when they are organized. They are making their last stand in this city at this election. If they are kept out they will be so

TERRE HAUTE CASES START

Trial of Donn M. Roberts and Others
Begin in Federal Court Before
Judge Anderson

EXPECT BIG LEGAL BATTLE

All Are Charged With Conspiring
Against Government to Corrupt
Election in Vigo County

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., March 8.—The defense in the election corruption conspiracy case against Mayor Roberts and 27 other Terre Haute politicians in Federal court here accepted a jury at noon today. The government probably will challenge several of these talesmen.

When questioned, John C. Deam, of Indianapolis, told A. O. Stanely for the defense, that he believed a crime had been committed in Terre Haute, Stanley tried to challenge Deam. Judge Anderson said:

"The juror simply said he had an opinion a crime had been committed. Everybody knows that. The question is does the juror have an opinion that these men now on trial are guilty. Although 88 have pleaded guilty, do not confuse the 28 here."

Later Deam was excused because his hearing was impaired. Twenty-seven talesmen were examined during the morning. The jury which the defense accepted was taken from the court room under guard at noon.

Mayor Roberts and twenty-seven political co-workers of Terre Haute went to trial here today before Federal Judge A. B. Anderson charged with conspiring against the government to corrupt the elections of Vigo county. Eighty-eight other defendants, all at one time connected with the Mayor Roberts organization have pleaded guilty and await sentence.

Frank C. Daily, United States district attorney, whose new interpretation of the federal criminal code resulted in the indictment represented the government. The chief attorney for the defendants was A. O. Stanley congressman from Kentucky. The indictment recently was upheld in every particular by Judge Anderson in his ruling on the demurrers of the defendants.

Practically the entire Roberts organization was in court today either among the group fighting the case or among those who have pleaded guilty. The twenty-eight who pleaded not guilty are the men higher up in the organization while the eighty-eight others as a rule did not hold city offices. Three notable exceptions are found in Edward Holler, who was Robert's chief of police when the indictment was returned. Jack Nugent night chief and Joe Jeffers. Holler is said to have confessed to the district attorney that as Roberts' chief he threw men in jail for political purposes.

The twenty-eight who pleaded not guilty are: Mayor Roberts, Judge Eli Redman, Sheriff Dennis Shea, City Controller Elmer E. Talbott, Harry Montgomery and George Ehrenhardt, members of the board of public works; City Judge Thomas Smith; Joseph O'Mara; County Sealer Maurice Walsh; City Sealer John Masselink; William O'Donnell, William Doyle; George Sovern; Hilton Redman, son of the judge; Tim (Bull) Conway; Edward Driscoll, John T. Green, optician; Arthur Gilles, undertaker; Charles Houghton; Richard Knucky; Perle McKay; Alexander Aczel alias Steele; Fred Morrison; Lewis Nunley; Wm. Crockett; Joseph Straus; Andrew O'Brien and George Voodall.

CREATES FUROR IN LEGISLATURE

Wilson-Bryan Democrats Try to Compel Submission of Constitutional Convention Question.

RALSTON ASKED FOR SUPPORT

While Women Are Absent, Senate
Passes Providing Proceedings Against Immoral Houses.

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., March 8.—Strenuous efforts of the Wilson-Bryan Democrats to compel the submission of the question of holding a constitutional convention before the adjournment of the legislature caused excitement today when Representative Jones rose to offer a motion, Representative Lyday sprang to his feet. By loud voting the request of Jones was refused. Its intent proved to be to call the initiative bill from judiciary A committee. Under it the constitutional convention bill as well as other legislation could be put to the vote of the people.

"Ten per cent of the people initiate legislation!" Lyday explained. "I guess not. If it passes it will be over my dead body."

Governor Ralston was today urged by leading Democrats to demand the submission of the question. Among those who signed the letter were United States District Attorney Frank C. Dailey, Postmaster Springsteen, former judge Remster and Charles Orison.

While women were excluded from the senate chamber, that body today passed the Rule declaring immoral houses to be a nuisance and giving any citizen the right to enjoin and abate them by civil proceedings.

Women of the legislative council who backed the measure received a quiet tip from Lieutenant Governor O'Neill that he would hand down the bill when women had left the scene. Then they went around the chamber and whispered the word to the women spectators and the women filed out.

GORDON BENNETT FINED.

Gordon Bennett was fined $5 lars and costs this morning in police court when he entered a plea of guilty to the charge of public intoxication. It was his second offense and Mayor Bebout told him that the next time would keep him in jail for several months.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Arbuckle are moving from their home at 323 West Second street, recently sold to Mrs. Rufus P. Bowen, of Orange, to the Bebout property in North Morgan street, and will soon let the contract for a new home to be erected on their East Seventh street lot, between Main and Perkins.

BARREL BOTTLED BEER CONFISCATED

With Finding of Additional Evidence Affidavit is Filed Against Ed Wolter.

TRIAL FRIDAY AFTERNOON

Ed Wolter will be tried Friday afternoon at one-thirty o'clock on the charge of the illegal possession of intoxicating liquor as the result of the raid on his pool room and home. The police visited the Wolter residence again Saturday afternoon and took charge of a barrel of bottled beer that had just been received. It is not known whether additional charges will be filed, but the beer was taken to police headquarters.

Someone telephoned the police that a barrel of whiskey and some beer had been taken to the Wolter home, but the police found only the beer. Wolter maintains that the beer was for his private use. He was arrested on the "blind tiger" charge late Saturday evening and released on bond. The case will be heard by a jury. P. A. Miller went on his bond.

A baby boy has been born to the wife of Arthur A. Coffin, formerly of this city, at their home in Milroy.

WINTERS GIRL "FOUND" AGAIN

Robert H. Abel, a Detective, Says

Today She is in Convent and is Alive and Well.

MISSING NEARLY TWO YEARS

(By United Press.) Indianapolis, Ind., March 8.—The Catherine Winters mystery was "positively solved" again today. The little girl who disappeared from Newcastle, Ind., almost exactly two years ago is in a convent this time, alive and well. This was the announcement of Robert H. Abel, a detective, who returned today from a two months' search involving Birmingham, Ala., Little Rock, Ark., and St. Louis.

Catherine Winters disappeared March 20, 1913. Since then innumerable theories have been exploded and she has been "found" in every part of the United States.

DALE GORDON HIT BY C. H. & D. TRAIN

Is Seriously Injured in Arlington and Will Probably Lose Part of Arm as Result.

WATCHED STOPPED AT 10:20

It is likely Dale Gordon, age twenty-eight years, living west of Arlington, will recover from injuries he sustained last Friday night when he was hit by a C. H. & D. train near the M. E. church in Arlington. His right arm was almost torn off and he received several bruises. It is thought that if a difficult surgical operation is successful, part of his arm may be saved.

Very little is known of the accident as Gordon was alone at the time and was unconscious for some time after he was struck. It is thought, however, he was injured about 10:20 p. m., as his watch shows that it was stopped at that time.

The train crew probably did not know of the accident as they did not stop.

He found his way, in some manner, to the home of Charles Lightner, upon regaining consciousness, and was taken to the office of Dr. F. H. Findlaw, in Arlington and later to his home.

NEARLY TWO YEARS TO SERVE IN JAIL

Delbert Newman's Sentence Imposed by Judge Sparks is Enforced
After Spree.

GETS $500 AND SIX MONTHS

A little spree Saturday afternoon cost Delbert Newman his freedom and he is now in jail "laying out" a fine of $500 and six months, imposed by Judge Sparks on the charge of encouraging delinquency. When Judge Sparks sentenced Newman it was suspended during good behavior. Saturday Newman and his father, John Newman, became intoxicated and both were placed in jail.

Delbert was not even taken before Mayor Bebout but was sent to the circuit court where Judge Sparks ordered the sentence enforced. The fine of $500 and six months in jail will make a total of about two years if he "lays out" the entire fine. John Newman was fined one dollar and costs by Mayor Bebout on the intoxication charge.

MRS. NANNIE HELM SUCCUMBS SUNDAY

Widow of Late Jefferson Helm Dies

at Age of Seventy Years of Dropsy.

FUNERAL TO BE WEDNESDAY

Mrs. Nannie Helm, 70 years old, widow of the late Jefferson Helm, died Sunday evening shortly before six o'clock at her home, corner of Third and Harrison streets. Mrs. Helm had been in ill health for the past five or six years but had been seriously ill only since last November. Death was caused by dropsy and a complication of diseases.

Mrs. Helm was widely known here, having lived most of her life in Rushville. Mrs. Helm would have been seventy-one in April. She is survived by two children, Miss Bertha Helm and George Helm. She also leaves one sister, Mrs. Charles Landis, of Chicago.

The funeral services will be conducted Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock at the late residence by the Rev. C. M. Yocum, assisted by the Rev. V. W. Tevis. Burial will take place in East Hill cemetery.

Hoosier Kitchen Cabinets

For a single dollar right now, you can have "White Beauty" the famous Hoosier Cabinet, put into your home at $2.50 less than even the low cash price fixed by the Hoosier Company; balance in small weekly dues of $1.

You can search the whole world and find nothing that saves so much labor in your kitchen. All the old features that have made the Hoosier famous in 800,000 kitchens are retained, but the new features alone that are added, without extra cost to you, are equal in themselves to the entire convenience of the average kitchen cabinet.

Here are some Exclusive Hoosier Conveniences. They will save you, records show, millions of steps.

THE REMARKABLE FLOUR BIN

You can judge the whole cabinet by the remarkable flour bin alone. This bin, all high-grade metal, is so smooth inside no flour can stick. Dust can't get in. The top is low—easy to fill. Entire top slides off for filling. The big sliding glass panel in front keeps contents visible—makes cleaning easy.

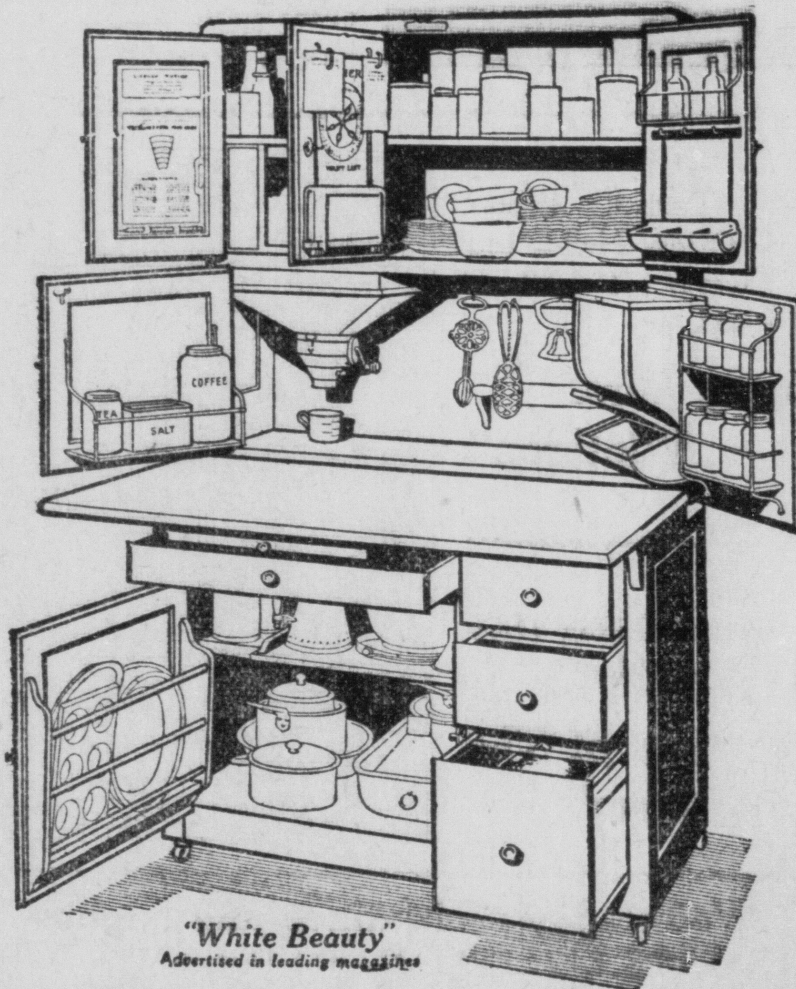

The new shaker sifter—a Hoosier patent—is a wonder. New principle entirely. Shakes flour through; doesn't grind it. Can't wear out. Can't grind grit through. Cleans the flour it sifts. Makes it fluffy and light.

Like the rest of the cabinet, every detail of this bin is perfected.

WHAT SHALL YOU COOK?

Mrs. Christine Frederick's Food Guide answers this eternal problem. Simply turn the dial to meat you like. A choice of simple menus is before you that balance perfectly with that meat.

Don't fail to see the forty other features—seventeen of them new.

"White Beauty"

Richmond Feels Better Saturday Afternoon When Rushville is Finally Eliminated.

IN BASKETBALL TOURNNEY

Newcastle Wins Right to Represent District by Taking Final Game Saturday Night.

The dope bucket was not upset in the district basketball tournament at Richmond Saturday and Newcastle won the right to represent the district at the state meet at Bloomington Friday and Saurday by defeating all comers. Brookville, the "dark horse" of the tournament, did not get into the finals although she made a strong bid for place in the semi-finals when Newcastle defeated her in the last game Saturday afternoon 23 to 18.

The decisive game of the tourney was played Saturday night between Richmond and Newcastle, the latter winning in the last few minutes of play, 23 to 21.

That Rushville was a feared opponent and that Richmond fans breathed a sigh of relief when the local team went down in defeat Saturday afternoon is revealed by the comment of Richmond newspapers. Some clippings from the two papers, the Item and Palladium, show the fierceness of the play:

Starting the last half with a two point lead, the locals pulled away from their fast opponents by brilliant passing and basket shooting.

Porter, the little Napoleon, won the game for his men by shooting difficult baskets from the center of the floor.

Playing their best at the close of the first half, the Richmond high school boys forged two points ahead of Rushville, the half ending with the score 17 to 15.

The teams were evenly matched fighting every inch of floor space and stubbornly resisting every attempt at basket shooting.

Stoops, who was the cause of the elimination of Mooreland, was playing his stellar game, but was greatly handicapped by the close guarding of Bavis, whose playing was one of the features of the half.

Brown and Laning were doing the scoring for Richmond.

The work of the Richmond defense was no more thorough and determined than was that of the Rushville squad, but the basket shooting eye of the R. H. S. forwards looped the ball into the baskets with greater precision. The Rushville boys could not get the range accurately.

Richmonds' first score came on a free shot by Brown after a foul by Martin. It was Brown's second shot, missing the first one. Rushville scored on free toss by Stoops after foul by Porter. Richmond scored its first field goal from jump under the basket on a "held ball," Laning slapping the ball in.

The play became fast and hard. It was one of the fightiest games of the tourney. The Richmond guards were having trouble solving the Rushville attack and breaking up the plays. The Rushville attack and system of team play was well developed and extremely effective.

Warning up to the work, the Richmond defense temporarily stopped the Rushville combinations and working nicely with the forwards, the Quaker machine soon established a several points' lead.

Johanning, Bavis and Porter were doing clever work. Martin, Titsworth and Stoops were working hard. The Richmond basket shooters were taking advantage of every opportunity.

SUNDAY LEAGUE
MAY BE FORMED

Idea of Circuit Takes Favorably With Connersville, Rushville and Newcastle—Richmond Wanted.

SEMI-PRO MANAGERS MEET

Session in Interest of K. I. O. League Brings Fifty Baseball Representatives There.

A Sunday baseball circuit composed of Newcastle Connersville, Richmond, Rushville and two road teams may be formed if plans and arrangements started yesterday at the meeting of semi-pro managers in Richmond can be carried out. Newcastle, Connersville and Rushville are known to favor the plan and the only draw back is the Richmond team.

Fifty managers and men representing baseball clubs attended the meeting, which was for the purpose of getting together on the K. I. O. league proposition. The Cincinnati and Kentucky managers, representing some thirty teams came to Richmond in a special car and the meeting proved to be one of the largest of its kind ever held. The Richmond baseball club entertained the visitors in great style.

Following the meeting the Rushville, Connersville and Newcastle representatives talked over the league proposition. The Richmond directors were not very strong for the idea and in case they do not come into the league another city may be asked to come in to the organization. Manager Davidson and Manager Remington, of Connersville, were in favor of the idea. As planned the league would start about the first of June and end in September. Before and after the league the teams would play independent ball.

Tom Ritter, represented the Newcastle club and started the talk concerning a league. Newcastle was formerly in a league and found it to be the most satisfactory manner to run the club. The Richmond directors will take the question up at an early date. The club had planned to play independent ball this season and may not change the original intentions.

The meeting of the K. I. O. managers was for the purpose of getting together on several things. The managers decided in booking Cincinnati team to book only those affiliated with the K. I. O. movement. There is a similar organization conducted in the interest of a certain sporting goods store and the K. I. O. league will buck this organization to the limit.

The following managers and representatives were present: John C. Ruther, Cincinnati Muldoons; William Sims and C. Kopp, Uricho club, Cincinnati; W. Weihe and Jack Benny, Weihe's All-Pros; H. Feldwish and H. Bacon, Blue Licks; S. Caldwell, Tuxedo clubs; H. Page, Hamilton Hoovens; S. Kennedy, Ludlow White Sox; Louis Hoonberger, Goodfellowship club; C. McCarty, Goodfellowship club; V. W. Astler, secretary of K. I. O. league; Joe Dixon, president of K. I. O. league; John Spinney, Charles Becker, Perkins-Campbell; Dick Kinney, Richmond; Hi Bauritell, Spauldings; William Berning, Perkins-Campbell; Harry Huckin, Dayton Shamrock; James Dowling, Dayton Shilohs; Adam Reudhal, Dayton Reserves; Ed Davidson, A. C. Huier, Rushville; Marion McCleery, Richmond Red Sox; Tommy Ritter, Newcastle; Eli Cates, Anderson; J. A. Remington, Connersville; J. F. Stenkamp, Richmond; I. L. Johnson, Indianapolis, Reserves; William D. Vogel, Indianapolis Taste Tels; H. Patti, Richmond; J. B. Wilkins, of Charles Carr Company, Indianapolis; R. L. Beck, of A. G. Spaulding, Indianapolis; K. L. Allison, Richmond Palladium; Lynn Shaw, Richmond Item, and Chad Cunningham, Muncie.

CHANCES SLIM
FOR ATHLETICS

Even Most Optimistic Fans Cannot See Themselves Standing in Line For Worlds' Series Games.

INFIELD SHOT TO PIECES

Critics Say Mack is Back Where he Was Five or Six Years Ago—Still Has Barry.

(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

Philadelphia, March 8.—The well known depths of despair hold Philadelphia's hopes for a pennant this season. Even the most optimistic fans cannot see themselves standing in line for worlds' series ducats next October. Both teams have had the severest shake-ups this winter in their history and only a miracle can bring either of them to the tape ahead of fourteen other teams.

The disintegration of the Athletics famous machine is the hardest blow. Philadelphia fans had come to look upon a worlds' series as an annual affair with Philadelphia—one that was theirs by divine right, or something of that sort—and the crash that shot the famous aggregation into history shook them to their toes.

The justly famous $100,000 infield now looks like thirty cents—some of the more belligerent even assert the three should be erased. The famous "Barry to Collins to McInnis" that figured drily in the box scores is gone. Quaker fans began to sit up and take notice when Bender and Plank, the two men who have brought pennants to Philadelphia year after year with their sterling performances were gone. Then came the Collins deal. That left their hopes stunned a bit more. Before they had time to recover, Frank Baker, king bee swatter of all worlds' series, announced he was through. That was the proverbial last straw.

Mack is now back where he was five or six years ago. True, he still has Barry and McInnis but the pair seems like the skeleton of a once solid structure. The addition of Larry Lajoie is going to help some, but the veteran is slowing up; he had a bad year last season with the Naps and he is viewed with some skepticism. Kopf, the little utility infielder will try to fill Baker's shoes at third, but is woefully weak. He only batted .182 in 34 games last season.

Mack had his old outfield to begin with again—Strunk, Oldering and Murphy. He is well fortified behind the plate with Lapp and Schang, but his pitching staff should cause him some worry. Bush, Pennoek, Wyckoff, Shawkey, and Bressler do not stack up favorably with the Gregg, Wood Leonard, Collins and Foster combinations which Boston boasts of nor the Cicotte, Scott Ben, Russell, Faber contingent upon which White Sox fans rest their hopes.

Another thing which is undoubtedly going to have an effect on the team. That is the absence of the four old stars. They are going to feel strange facing the enemy without them—that old confidence and cock-sureness that won them many games isn't going to be there.

The Phillies are about in the same boat with their fellow-townsmen. There, too, is the absence of old stars going to be felt. Sherwood, Magee, a Mighty Son of Swat, has gone to Boston, and his old running mate, Honus Lobert will be seen in a Giant uniform this season. Charley Dooan has gone to Cincinnati. The Phils didn't have a whole lot to start the season with last year, thanks to Jim Gilmore's raiding cohorts, but they have less this season.

Killifer behind the bat is alright; he proved that last season. First, base will be occupied as usual by Landerus, but that about tells the story of Pat Moran's infield. Byrne will be seen at second, but he was not a howling success last season; for short, there is Martin, who played last year, and is about in the same class. Then for third, Moran has Milton Stock, secured from the Giants in the Lobert deal, and a youngster from the Pacific Coast League who is reputed to be a comer. He answers to the name of Dave Baneroff. Stock didn't make a hit with McGraw last season and for that reason was let go. Baneroff is a recruit.

However, Moran is fortunate in having a fairly heavy hitting outfield in Paskert, Gravath and Becker. They should be able to drive in a lot o'runs for him this season if they perform in anything like their usual fashion.

Alexander is the big man in Moran's hurling department. He is unquestionably one of the best flippers in the National League. Backing him up are Demaree Mayer, Tineup, Oescheger, Rixey, Baumgardner, Mattison and Jacobs. Demaree was an erratic performer last season with the Giants, but if he has a good season with the Phils they should be pretty formidable in the box. Rixey and Mayer have proven dependable men in the past.

No, Philadelphia fans are making any books that a pennant is coming here next season. Not hardly any.

EQUIPMENT: One-man top; inside curtains; electric head-lights with dimmer attachment; electric tail-light; electric horn with button in center of steering wheel; 32 x 3 1/2 inch tire; demountable rims with one extra rim; clear-vision windshield; tool and tire repair kit.

THE SMALL FOUR $650

DETAILED SPECIFICATIONS OF THE NEW REGAL

MOTOR—The motor is 3 3/8 x 3 3/4 inches. Cylinders are cast en-bloc. Motor develops 27 h. p. on brake test.

MOTOR SUSPENSION—Supported on side rails of frame.

CYLINDERS—Best grade of Grey Iron carefully annealed and tested before and after machining. Connecting rods drop forged from best grade 40 carbon open hearth steel, double heat-treated.

CRANKSHAFT—Drop forged, from 40 carbon open hearth steel, double heat-treated; has two main bearings.

CAMSHAFT—Driven from crankshaft; both crankshaft and camshaft have improved oil retaining device.

LUBRICATION—Lower half of crank case forms oil reservoir. Lubrication system is splash. Oil is forced directly to gear case and overflows into crank case. Lower end of each connecting rod is provided with a dipper which passes through a trough full of oil at each revolution. Oil level is constantly maintained regardless of motor speed or grades.

Circulation is by thermo-syphon system. All water passages of large size and free from steam pockets.

IGNITION—Three sources of current for ignition, starting and lighting are generator, storage battery and an extra set of dry cells for emergency use.

STARTING AND LIGHTING—A thoroughly efficient starter acts directly on the crank shaft without intermediate gears. The Regal starter has from forty to sixty fewer parts than others.

Generator delivers sufficient current for all lamps at 12 miles per hour. Above this speed the excess charges the battery. Starter spins the motor 200 R. P. M.

CLUTCH—Cone with leather facing. Bearing is die-cast of special bearing metal. Clutch throw-out operates with ball bearings.

DRIVE SHAFT—Is mounted on universal joint at front end. Drive shaft is enclosed in a torsion tube with ball joint at the front end pivoted to a cross-member of the frame.

TRANSMISSION—Selective type, three speeds forward and reverse. All shafts mounted on roller bearings. Removable cover plate gives access to every part.

REAR AXLE—Full floating on roller bearings. Housing has removable cover plate making it easy to take out the complete differential. Gear ratio 4 to 1.

SPRING SUSPENSION—Front springs are semi-elliptic, 34 inches long x 1 3/4 inches wide. The rear are cantilever 40 inches long x 2 inches wide.

CARBURETION—A 1 1/8 inch Stewart special carburetor of the float-feed automatic type is used. Gasoline adjustment on the dash.

FENDERS—Crown type rigidly attached to main frame. Running boards fitted with aluminum plates in front of doors.

WEIGHT—About 1800 pounds with equipment.

TIRES—30-inch x 3 1/2 inch, clincher demountable. One extra rim.

FRONT AXLE—I-beam drop forged. Axle and yoke are provided with phosphor bronze bushing. Steering rod is placed behind the axle.

BRAKES—Two sets—service brake operated by foot pedal is external contracting; emergency brake operated by pedal is internal expanding.

completely disorganized that they will be unable to 'come back.' The breweries will invest money in a 'dry' town for two years, making it as riotous as possible with the view of breaking down temperance sentiment. But when the saloons are kept out another two years the breweries give it up."

In proof of this statement Mr. Bachelor cited two other cities in the state where he had formerly lived where they kept the saloons out for four successive years. One of these cities has not had a saloon for ten years and the other has been without them for eight years.

He added: "This has been the history of such fights. In other places where they have been put out four years in succession they have been so thoroughly disorganized that they have not been able to come back in the fight."

"2. To keep them out breaks up the segregation of the element which congregates in saloons and there spreads its low ideals and corrupt morals. Keep the saloon out another two years and many of these will slink out of town to other 'wet' towns where they will find things more to their liking. This will rid us of an undesirable lawless element which will diminish crime, and lessen our taxes. But if we let the saloon back in we will drain the 'dry' territory about us of its 'wet' element, and furnish it with a place to segregate and organize."

"3. To keep them out will remove a chief factor in the corruption of local politics. There is no greater menace to democratic institutions than the segregation of an element which gathers its ideas of patriotism and citizenship from the low grog shop and which has proved its enemy to organized civil government. The saloon creates a distinctive type of politician. It stands for the worst things in political life. If the ideals of our politics are to be saved the domination of the liquor league in politics must be destroyed."

"4. To keep them out will result in making their outlawry fugitive. It is a gain to make any kind of lawlessness fugitive. It is better to drive it from cover to cover and make it gain its living by stealth. This is true of all crime. If crime were nominally fined with the understanding that it could operate with impunity under certain restrictions, crime would be encouraged. The court does not act on this theory. It outlaws the outlaw. It makes the criminal fugitive. There will always be some lawlessness connected with the handling of liquor. But if this exists in the form of 'blind tigers' it can never do the harm that it could if protected and perpetuated by a license. The license makes its corrupting presence certain. But being a fugitive it is greatly handicapped and hindered in its power to do harm."

Main Street Christian

Preliminary to his sermon yesterday morning, the Rev. C. M. Yocum made the following statement:

There are 438 names signed to the petition calling a local option election. Of these 367 did not pay one cent of taxes last year, not even poll tax. Only 71 paid taxes, just 12 paid on $1000.00 or more, 108 are on the delinquent list, 259 are not even on the duplicate and the entire list only paid $1,685.51 taxes last year. The 108 who are on the delinquent list owe the county $779.02 and 41 owe a local coal merchant for coal. Another merchant said that with a few exceptions the list read like his black list.

The Rev. Mr. Yocum preached a missionary sermon yesterday morning, it being the day set apart for foreign missions by the Christian church. His subject was: "The Call of Nantunghow." He said in part: "Nantunghow is one of the richest agricultural districts in all China—6000 square miles of territory with nearly 1,000 people to the square mile, making a population of fully 5,000,000. The region is covered with a remarkable system of canals, making travel for evangelization very easy. This section is very progressive and has never been disturbed by a revolution. We are the only mission people really proposing to occupy the field, and upon us lies the responsibility for the whole district. The leading citizen of Nantunghow is Chang Chien, who is a multimillionaire, Minister of Commerce and Agriculture for China and head of President Yuan Shi Kai's cabinet. He is the most generous and public spirited man in all China and is trying to make his city and region a model for the whole country. He has established a system of education in his district, unknown in any other part of China, with schools in city, town, village, and even open country. In Nantunghow he has built from his own private funds large normal schools for both men and women in order to train teachers for these schools. He has also built a large museum, an agricultural school, an orphanage and a hospital. He has asked our missionaries to take charge of his large orphanage with full privilege of teaching Christianity in it, and he has secured the finest piece of land in Nantunghow for our boy's school. In fact he has opened so many doors for our small force to enter that our Foreign Society is embarrassed in their inability to enter them all.

I doubt if in all the world there is a rarer opportunity to do constructive work for Christianity than there is in this district. Imagine the combined population of Ohio and Indiana packed into the state of Delaware with only one church of eighty members and three missionaries and a few helpers and a wealthy man ready to stand back of any advanced step that is to be taken and the only need of men to go and of money to send them. This is the call of Nantunghow.

Something must be done at once. Chang Chien looks to us for aid in his schools now, but he will not wait long. We must act at once.

TODAY'S ODDEST STORY.

Tacoma, Wash., March 8.—One drink will cost Thomas Cannally $4,000 while intoxicated.

After serving a month of his sentence Cannally appealed to Police Justice Evans to be released, offering to deposit $4,000 in cash, to be forfeited in case he took a drink before his term would have expired. Justice Evans agreed and placed the money on deposit in a local bank.

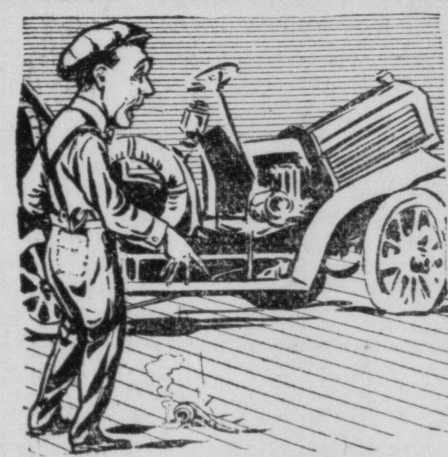

The money was still in the bank today drawing 3 per cent interest and Cannally was occupying a seat high on the "water wagon."

James E. Watson's Sunday school class of the M. E. church will give a penny supper at the church Wednesday, March 10 at 5 o'clock—and a gift box social at 4 o'clock in the afternoon. 307t3

$3000.00 FIRE PREVENTED

The House the Red Jacket Saved

Read This Letter:

"Several years ago I called on Lane & Evans to buy a pump and they almost forced me to buy one of your Fig. 28 Red Jacket Double-Acting Force Pumps and fifty feet of hose when I only intended to buy a cheap set length pump. Mr. Lane put up such strong argument on 'fire protection' that I followed his advice and bought the Fig. 28, little thinking that it would be of any service to me in that respect."

Shortly after the pump was installed, my barn caught fire and had it not been for this pump and hose and the thoughtfulness of Mrs. Barnett, my barn, house and all buildings on the place would have been destroyed."

We Have Our Spring Buggies In!

and they are ready for your inspection and we extend you an invitation to call and look them over this week as it will be to your interest to make your selection between now and the closing day of our Opening. We will explain why when you come in. We have the finest buggies ever placed on a sample floor and we want you to look them over. If you need a Storm Buggy this is the correct place to get what you want. We are not selling them at a reduction of $25.00, however, but we are selling them just the same as we have all season at $100.00. We have always said that our price was just as low at any time as the cut prices of our competitors, and we are always ready to do as we advertise. When a merchant advertises he has made a cut of $25.00 on a buggy use a little common sense in forming an opinion about this like the fellow that was in a state of coma, and his friends thought he was dead, but before time to bury him he showed signs of life. When he rallied enough to talk his friends asked him how it seemed to be dead. "Dead," he exclaimed, "I knew all the time what was going on and I knew I wasn't dead, too, because my feet were cold and I was hungry and I knew that if I was in heaven I wouldn't be hungry and if I was in the other place my feet wouldn't be cold. Now if you will study out 99 per cent of the cut price argument you will see just about as much to them as there is in this little story. In other words, somebody has to be the goat, and the man that takes $25.00 off of a buggy during a sale must have a lot on when he is selling regular. Buy your buggies where the price is always the same and as low as any cut price sale ever advertised in Rush County. Let the other fellow be the goat this time.

STOPPED RUSHVILLE MAN'S BACKACHE

He Tells of Remarkable Results
From New, Scientific Remedy.

Mr. Chase Litterell of 830 North Arthur street, Rushville, Ind., says: "Some time ago I noticed severe pains across the small of my back. My kidneys were off in action and the kidney secretions were highly colored. I suffered continually with the backache. At night it was impossible for me to control my kidneys and I would have to get up very often. For these ills I got a box of Lloyd's Kidney and Rheumatism Tablets, the new scientific prescription. The results were fine. I was surprised that any medicine would give such quick relief. Lloyd's relieved me instantly and I have not had a return of the trouble. I am sure that others would find quick relief in Lloyd's. I did."

not one in ten men in the Mormon church practiced polygamy, but it was one of the cardinal principles of the church. He said the head of the church claims to be God's only representative on earth and the Mormon church pretends to be God's kingdom already here—the same kingdom we pray for.

Mr. Cannon told of the treaty under which Utah came into the union, which was an agreement that the Mormon church promised to discontinue the practice of polygamy and the misuse of the trust fund which was placed in its hands by the government. He charged that the covenants with the United States church had broken all of the He said the doctrine of the church taught that the more polygamous wives a man had, the more exalted he would be in heaven. He recalled that the head prophet testified before the United States senate that he had 42 children by polygamous wives and that he was not amenable to United States laws.

The ex-senator told of the last attempt to punish polygamy in Utah when the head of the church was hauled up in court on a misdemeanor charge, to which it had been reduced from a more severe charge. He said the judge quaked and said that since it was his first offense—he having been the father of 42 children already—he would fine him $300.

The former senator charged that the Mormon church had invested its holdings in great combines and that the head of the church controlled the sugar trust and the salt trust. Yet he declared, the church had never been compelled to make an accounting for the use of the fund which was placed in its hands as a trust, a privilege that was never allowed any person or institution in the United States holding a trust fund.

Last night Mr. Cannon cited some specific cases to prove that polygamy is still practiced not only by the Mormons generally but by the high priests of the church. He said that there was no way for the newspapers to publish instances of polygamous marriages because there were no proofs. Although whenever such a thing took place, the whole community knew of it, but if the case ever came into court, no one would testify to the truth because of fear of the power of the Mormon church.

He told of one case, however, which got into the newspapers. A young man, after being graduated from Harvard, returned to Salt Lake City, with some Puritanical ideas. He learned his sister had become the polygamous wife of a Mormon high priest and he promptly "beat to a pulp" the head of said high priest. Of course, this brought the case some publicity and the fact was published that it was a polygamous marriage.

"Straightway," continued the ex-senator, "the polygamous head of the church called together his polygamous board of elders and excommunicated the polygamous high priest from a polygamous church for the practice of polygamy."

He cited this case to reveal the perfidy of the system. He charged that the church spent a quarter of a million dollars to get the convention of national educators in Salt Lake

City in 1913 to impress upon them that the church did not practice polygamy.

James E. Watson was unexpectedly called upon last night to introduce the former senator, the two having become acquainted while members of congress. Mr. Watson paid deep tribute to the speaker, saying that the message he had was wonderful, but that the man could be seen speaking through the message all the time.

Ex-senator Cannon recalled that it was a president from Indiana, Benjamin Harrison, who repudiated the unholy alliance with the Mormon church and brought the sect to terms, and added that it might remain for another president from Indiana (bowing to Mr. Watson) to do the thing again. This was a signal for applause, as was the appearance of Mr. Watson in the pulpit.

Special music was furnished in the afternoon by a quartet composed of Miss Norma Smith, Miss Nancy Hogsett, Dr. Frank M. Sparks and Dr. Hale Pearsey, and Wagoner's orchestra. Miss Martha Hogsett was the accompanist. At night Mrs. C. F. Beher sang a solo. The Christian church was crowded to capacity at night.

Dr. James S. Martin, general superintendent of the National Reform association, with which Mr. Cannon is affiliated in his crusade against the Mormon church, was with him here yesterday. He spoke briefly at the afternoon and evening meetings and filled the pulpit at the U. P. church yesterday morning. At that time he touched briefly on the liquor question but dwelt more on the need of the Bible in the public schools and deplored the present-day tendency to secularize governmental institutions.

GERMANS TAKE TO OFFENSIVE AGAIN

Boom of Big Guns is Shaking Region
in South Poland for First Time
in Three Weeks

ENEMY'S RETREAT A BATTLE

(By United Press.)

Petrograd, March 8.—The Germans have taken a violent offensive in southeast Poland, the war office admitted today. For the first time in three weeks the region around Opoczno and Tomasz is being shaken by the boom of big guns. The right wing of Mackensen's army west of Warsaw is delivering infantry attacks against the Russian position.

The enemy's retreat along the Pilava has developed into a big battle overshadowing for the instant other operations in Poland. At least two German army corps are reported to be engaged. The opposing forces are encroached along the Przasnysz and Maza road and engaged in constant battles. Northwest of Orofino the grand duke's troops continue to make progress over the swamps.

Oliver Plows

It is a fact that every word we say about the No. 11 Oliver Sulky Plow is true, and if you have ever owned one you know we can't speak too well for this OLIVER SULKY. It is the best plow for any soil, at any time and under any conditions, that is manufactured today. Its construction is simplicity in every detail; hence it is light in weight. It is built to hug the ground; it is the only plow which successfully backs furrows, turns square corners, right or left without raising the base, and is acknowledged to be the lightest in draft and turns the soil in better condition than any other sulky plow. And I hereby challenge any manufacturer or dealer for a fair field trial that the No. 11 OLIVER SULKY is lighter in draft, will turn the soil in better condition, turn all trash under better and leave your ground in better condition than any other Sulky Plow manufactured.

We have a good stock of Oliver Sulky and Walking Plows and Repairs on hands, and invite you to call and see me, and get prices before you buy.

CAMPAIGN TO CLEAN UP CITY

Ninety-Seven Appear in Knox Circuit Court to Answer to 182 Indictments.

MOSTLY CHARGE GAMBLING

Youthful Prosecutor Who Made Opinion Fight Against Liberal Element Going it Alone.

(By United Press.)

Vincennes, Ind., March 8.—When ninety-seven persons appeared in the Knox circuit court today to answer to 182 indictments, most of them charging gambling, the "clean up," as it has been termed, of Vincennes and Knox county began in earnest.

The indictments considered today were returned by the grand jury. In a record-breaking term that body found 223 true bills. Of today's lot, 103 were for gambling. Inmates of alleged bawdy houses were represented in the remaining seventy-nine, as were saloon keepers and five young men charged with the assault of a Freelandville girl.

Joseph W. Kimmell, a mere youth in years, who openly defied the gambling element during his campaign, conducted the grand jury probe with dispatch. All the indictments were returned after a sixteen-day session. Kimmell then announced that he would play no favorites. He is known as a fearless young man of excellent character. Shortly before his election as prosecuting attorney he married a niece of William S. Vollmer, who recently retired as treasurer of state.

Kimmell has announced that he is "going it alone" and that no significance should be attached to his connection with the Vollmer family, which for years has dominated Knox county politics. Kimmell made an "auto" campaign and had many votes to spare, though the liberal element had attacked him as incompetent.

Eighteen saloon keepers were arraigned today on charges of violating the liquor laws. Charles Tanguary, their leader, faced six indictments. Chris Eheart, another saloon keeper, charged with running a gaming house, is now in jail charged with arson, and a Bicknell saloon-keeper is charged with assault and battery with intent to kill.

Pool room proprietors who are charged with allowing minors to play and with allowing gambling devices, made up a big element among today's defendants.

The Bungalow, an alleged notorious resort situated just without the city limits on the banks of the Wabash, which never has been raided since it was established, drew its share of indictments. Charles (Doc.) Jones, husband of the mistress, forfeited his bond and his whereabouts, is unknown. Mrs. Jones pleaded today to seven indictments, including, selling liquor without a license, selling to minors and statutory offenses. Every inmate of the place was indicted, but many of them have moved to Terre Haute, also on the banks of the Wabash.

Among the best known defendants today were C. C. Gossnell, expresident of the Kitty league; Robert James, city sewer inspector; Albert Heinemann, Republican city employee; Charles Frederick, Republican central committeeman; Charles Tanguary, Republican politician; and John A. Cox, William Dant, Thomas Leach, Harry Williams, Samuel Whitaker and Daniel Boggs, all oil men.

It was predicted that a majority of those indicted on gambling charges would plead guilty to "gaming" and thus escape the possibility of a ten-day jail sentence with accompaniment the minimum sentence for keeping or visiting a gaming house.

CRUISER PUT OUT OF ACTION

Shells Explode on Deck of French Warship, Killing Many Men—British Deny it.

BY ED L. KEENE
(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

London, March 8.—A French cruiser was put out of action and an English cruiser badly damaged during the Sunday afternoon bombardment of the Dardanelles, the Turkish war office claims in an official statement given out today and sent by wireless from Berlin.

Unofficial dispatches via Berlin confirm the Turkish claims. Turkish shells exploded on the deck of the French warship, killing many of her men. She steamed slowly out of the fighting line with her upper works in flames.

The Turkish statement follows: "During Sunday afternoon the enemy's cruisers, including the Majestic and Irresistible, bombarded the inner forts of the Dardanelles. They suffered severe damage."

"A French cruiser was put out of action. An English cruiser was badly damaged. The enemy ceased firing within a few hours and withdrew. The Turkish batteries suffered no damage of any description."

British admiralty officers flatly denied the claim of the Turks. They asserted that the latest official dispatches from Vice-admiral Carden reported the allies fleets bombarding the forts at long range outside the fire of the Turk forts.

ment charges that he intimidated other men into entering into the conspiracy. He is accused of levying assessments on proprietors of gambling houses, saloons, and dance-halls to pay the expenses of about 3,000 false registrations; he demanded it is charged that only men he could buy be placed on an election board. He is alleged to have hired men to haul repeaters and to have ordered citizens who tried to block his schemes thrown into jail. He told Frank Hess, proprietor of a saloon in the tenderloin it is charged, that Hess would get 25 cents for each false registration from his saloon and told Jack Hines, another saloon-keeper that he would have to deliver 700 votes.

One of the prominent defendants is Eli Redman, judge of the circuit court, who sent Charles W. Clogston editor of the Terre Haute Post, to jail for calling the grand jury in Judge Redman's court "gang-picked" and kept Clogston in jail for three days until Federal Judge Anderson ordered the release of the editor. The returns showed a plurality of 10 votes for Redman and his election is being contested by his opponent, Chas. W. Pulliam.

Sheriff Dennis Shea, who is a political leader of influence apart from his connection with the Roberts organization, is charged with having $100 to pay for votes. One of his deputies Peter Feiler, died of wounds he received in an election day fight with Wesley Mitchell an election official opposed to the Roberts organization.

STORY IS WRONG AS REGARDS HIM

John Gantner Declares Report he
Was One of Seven Who Would Get Licenses is False.

NEVER CIRCULATED PETITION

Articles Also Intimated he Was a
Witness Before Commissioners
at Hearing Wednesday.

John Gantner today complained of the story in the Daily Republican Saturday which said it was reported that he was one of the seven men, from which six would be chosen to get saloon licenses in case Rushville votes "wet," and said the report as regards him is "false and defamatory."

Mr. Gantner says that the story intimated that he was one who circulated a petition for signers and was a witness before the county board of commissioners as to the sufficiency of certain names on said petition, all of which, he asserts, was "false, libelous and defamatory."

He says in his signed statement that the "false and defamatory statements regarding the said John Gantner are injurious to his standing and character in the city of Rushville and community;" that the statements which were made by publication are an injury to his business.

The Republican story based on a report in circulation said that "Practically all of them (meaning the seven men mentioned) circulated petitions for signatures to call an election and they were witnessed last Wednesday, when the commissioners considered the petition, to swear to the signatures of a number of persons, which were questioned."

Five of the seven men mentioned—"Jim" Smith, James (White) Barrett, August Roth, Eddie Wolter and Tom Evans—did circulate petitions for the election and were witnesses at the hearing before the commissioners, but John Gantner and John Kelley, former street commissioner, did not circulate petitions and were not witnesses before the commissioners at the hearing on the petitions.

GERMAN NATIVE DEAD AT MANILLA

FIVE CHILDREN SURVIVE

Mrs. Margaret Kney, 75 years old, widow of the late Michael Kney, died Sunday morning at ten-thirty o'clock at her home near Manilla from pneumonia. Mrs. Kney had been ill for several weeks but was not considered in a serious condition until last Saturday. Mrs. Kney was a native of Germany and came to this country when sixteen years old.

Mrs. Kney is survived by five children, Jacob Kney, Mrs. Minnie Haehl, Mrs. Emma Carr, Mrs. Louis Wendling and Mrs. Rosa Wiley. The funeral services will be conducted Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock in the German Evangelical church in Shelby county. Burial will take place in the church cemetery.

Charles Worthington is slowly recovering from the effects of a carbuncle on his shoulder which has disabled him since last September.

JUDGE FINDS FOR DEFENDANT

When Fish and Game Commissioner
Fails to Appear, Case Against
John Toolen Fails.

THE JURY IS DISMISSED

He, With Two Others, Was Charged
With Using Dynamite to Kill
Fish in Flatrock.

When Lewis J. Amos, of Brookville, formerly a deputy game warden, did not put in an appearance in the circuit court this afternoon at the trial of John Toolen charged with using dynamite to kill fish, the case was taken from the jury and Judge Sparks found for the defendant.

The presence of Amos as a witness was necessary because he filed the affidavit against Toolen. The jury had heard part of the case and the only other witness for the state was Amos. As a result of his failure to come here a citation will probably be issued asking him to show why he should not be held in contempt of court. A summons was sent to Franklin county for Amos to appear at the trial here and the return shows that it was read to him.

Since Amos filed the affidavit here he has been removed from office by the fish and game warden. With Amos' failure to come here there was nothing for the court to do but discharge the jury and find Toolen not guilty. It was alleged that Toolen in company with Hubert Mosier, Tom Keating and Greely Perkins went north of the C. H. & D. bridge over Flatrock and used dynamite to kill fish. The offense is alleged to have occurred May 26, 1914.

Frank Alexander, engineer at the C. H. & D. pumping station testified to seeing the men along the river that day and of hearing an explosion of dynamite. Silas Churchill, 12 years old, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Churchill, testified that he heard the explosion and went over to the scene. He stated that a man, partly bald, was coming out of the water with about twelve fish when he arrived there. He could not identify Toolen as one of the men, but the state contended that the man coming out of the water was Perkins.

The jury which was empaneled to try the case was composed of the following: Ellis Culbertson, W. S. Newhouse, Marshall Green, Frank McCoy, John D. Conway, Frank S. Keeley, Edwin O. George, E. Z. Williams, Clarence Daubenspeck, John Bowles, William M. Bosley and M. A. McDonald.

Man Charged With Violation of Ordinance Not Ready Today.

The case against Louis Heyeman, of Cleveland, charged with violating the city ordinance regarding peddlers, was continued this afternoon in police court until March 23. Heyeman stated that he was not yet ready for trial and the continuance was granted. Heyeman is alleged to have sold a lot of $10 suits here, making a house-to-house canvass and taking $1 down with each order. He alleged that the sale was not made but the local officials maintain that the sale was made as soon as the dollar deposit was made.

Several local Red Men will go to Connersville tonight at 6:20 over the I. & C. to see some degree work there.

ARRAIGNS THE MORMON CHURCH

Ex-Senator Cannon Reveals Perfidy
of Sect Which Broke its Pledge
With Government.

INSTANCES OF POLYGAMY

Speaker at Two Meetings Here Sunday Refers Briefly to the Liquor Question.

Former United States Senator Frank J. Cannon, the last delegate and the first senator ever elected from Utah, exposed the Mormon church in two addresses in Rushville Sunday, one in the afternoon at men's big meeting at St. Paul's M. E. church and another at night at the union meeting at the Main Street Christian church.

Two resolutions to be presented to congress urging that body to amend the constitution so as to forbid the practice of polygamy and forbid the use of the mails to the literature of the Mormons so long as they teach and encourage polygamy and treason against the government. A vote was taken on the resolutions and practically every person in the audience raised the hand in favor. The resolutions will be sent forward to congress. The thing is being done at every meeting held every day by the ex-senator.

In the afternoon he touched briefly on the liquor question. He had shown the powerful influence the Mormon church has, not only in its own home, Utah, but in a number of other states, and then declared that the church was the largest dispenser of liquor in Utah. The former senator recounted the story of how the W. T. C. U. tried to have a statewide prohibition law passed in Utah.

He said one of the powers in the Mormon church promised the women he would have the legislature pass a such a law and in return the women held a meeting in the Mormon church. At the same time, ex-senator Cannon said he was dubious about results to be obtained because the one who had promised to have the law passed was one of the directors of the place controlled by the church which sold most of the whiskey in Utah. Anyway, the speaker said, the legislature passed the bill, and the prominent Mormon had kept his word, but the head of the Mormon church had the governor veto the bill. This was also to show the political control of the church.

Pausing briefly on the temperance question, the ex-senator said if he should be allowed to pass opinion on the coming election here, he wanted to put the thing plainly; it was simply a question whether "you want to send your boy to hell through the saloon."

"But if you have no son, no brother," he continued, "the moral responsibility rests with you just the same. You will be accountable to God some day. It is just the same as if all of the war makers were put up on the front line and got the first bullets, there would be no war; so, if all of the men who had no sons were made to feel the influence of the saloon by bringing it into their lives directly, there would be no more saloons."

"I admire that man Kent who spoke out in California when the question of the war with Mexico was uppermost. He said that he owned a mine in Mexico and he would like to save it but he would not fight to protect it; neither would he send his son to fight to protect it; he would rather lose the mine. So, he concluded, he would not ask any other man or any other man's son to fight to protect his property."

The ex-senator said that probably

WILL DESTROY "WET" BUSINESS

Rev. A. D. Batchelor Says Saloons
Can't Come Back if They Are
Defeated Twice Straight

HE CITES PROOF OF THIS

Rev. C. M. Yocum Says Only 71 of 438 Signing "Wet" Petition for
Election Paid Taxes

Ministers of the city in their sermons Sunday morning discussed the approaching local option election. Rev. C. M. Yocum of the Main Street Christian church cited the fact that only 71 of the 438 petitions for a local option election paid taxes last year.

The Rev. A. D. Batchelor of St. Paul's M. E. church argued that if the saloons were defeated this time they would not attempt to come back and cites cases in proof of this. He held that the saloon element was lawless and to legalize their business did not make them regard the element any better. The sermons follow:

St. Paul's M. E.

Yesterday morning at the Methodist church the Rev. A. D. Batchelor preached a temperance sermon on "Loosening the Law." The text was Heb. 1:4, "The law is slackened." He said in part:

"No text could be found which is more applicable to the liquor traffic. It is a trade which disregards the laws which have been made to restrict it. As a class, the liquor men do not pretend to keep the law. If the territory is dry it is the same defiance of law. They even brazenly affirm that the law cannot be enforced against the trade. This carries with it the most severe indictment of the traffic. It is equivalent to saying that in the liquor business there is a class of criminals who intend to carry on their business whether the law forbids it or not."

"It is a frank avowal of a law-defying traffic. This is the real meaning of their statement that the law cannot be enforced in 'dry' territory. Lawlessness is characteristic of the trade from the brewery down to the 'boot-legging joint.' In the trial of 'boot-legging' the presence of brewery agents is conspicuous. Brewery agents also readily furnish bail for those criminals. This is proof enough that the brewery is behind all this lawlessness, abetting and encouraging it."

"In view of their lawlessness it would be a mistake to vote them back into power. When they set themselves above the law, and do business in defiance of the law, they should be regarded as dangerous citizens, like any other outlaw, and should be given no privilege in the form of a license, lest their power of outlawry increase. They will not keep the law any better after they get a license than they will before it. What they need is not a legal permit to sell liquor to make them reputable citizens, but a change of heart toward all law. If we desire to keep the peace of our city and the safety of our streets, then let us not legalize a gang of outlaws such as the liquor men of this city have proved themselves to be."

"It will be a decided gain to keep them out for the following reasons: 1. When the Saloon is kept out the lawless liquor element is disorganized so that it does not become the moral menace it otherwise would. A saloon represents a financial investment in the interest of which the owners organize. It is harder to overthrow them when they are organized. They are making their last stand in this city at this election. If they are kept out they will be so

Begin in Federal Court Before
Judge Anderson

EXPECT BIG LEGAL BATTLE

All Are Charged With Conspiring
Against Government to Corrupt
Election in Vigo County

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., March 8.—The defense in the election corruption conspiracy case against Mayor Roberts and 27 other Terre Haute politicians in federal court here accepted a jury at noon today. The government probably will challenge several of these talesmen.

When questioned, John C. Deam, of Indianapolis, told A. O. Stanley for the defense, that he believed a crime had been committed in Terre Haute. Stanley tried to challenge Deam. Judge Anderson said:

"The juror simply said he had an opinion a crime had been committed. Everybody knows that. The question is does the juror have an opinion that these men now on trial are guilty. Although 88 have pleaded guilty, do not confuse the 28 here."

Later Deam was excused because his hearing was impaired. Twenty-seven talesmen were examined during the morning. The jury which the defense accepted was taken from the court room under guard at noon.

Mayor Roberts and twenty-seven political co-workers of Terre Haute went to trial here today before Federal Judge A. B. Anderson charged with conspiring against the government to corrupt the elections of Vigo county. Eighty-eight other defendants, all at one time connected with the Mayor Roberts organization have pleaded guilty and await sentence.

Frank C. Daily, United States district attorney, whose new interpretation of the federal criminal code resulted in the indictment representing the government. The chief attorney for the defendants was A. O. Stanley, congressman from Kentucky. The indictment recently was upheld in every particular by Judge Anderson in his ruling on the demurrers of the defendants.

Practically the entire Roberts organization was in court today either among the group fighting the case or among those who have pleaded guilty. The twenty-eight who pleaded not guilty are the men higher up in the organization while the eighty-eight others as a rule did not hold city offices. Three notable exceptions are found in Edward Holler, who was Robert's chief of police when the indictment was returned. Jack Nugent, night chief and Joe Jeffers. Holler is said to have confessed to the district attorney that as Robert's chief he threw men in jail for political purposes.

The twenty-eight who pleaded not guilty are: Mayor Roberts, Judge Eli Redman, Sheriff Dennis Shea, City Controller Elmer E. Talbott, Harry Montgomery and George Ehrenhardt, members of the board of public works; City Judge Thomas Smith; Joseph O'Mara; County Sealer Maurice Walsh; City Sealer John Masselink; William O'Donnell, William Doyle; George Gorman; Hilton Redman, son of the judge; Tim (Bull) Conway; Edward Driscoll, John T. Green, optician; Arthur Gilles, undertaker; Charles Houghton; Richard Knucky; Perle McKay; Alexander Acel alias Steele; Fred Morrison; Lewis Nunley; Wm. Crockett; Joseph Straus; Andrew O'Brien and George Voodall.

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., March 8.—Strenuous efforts of the Wilson-Bryan Democrats to compel the submission of the question of holding a constitutional convention before the adjournment of the legislature caused excitement today when Representative Jones rose to offer a motion, Representative Lyday sprang to his feet. By loud voting the request of Jones was refused. Its intent proved to be to call the initiative bill from judiciary A committee. Under it the constitutional convention bill as well as other legislation could be put to the vote of the people.

"Ten per cent of the people initiate legislation!" Lyday explained. "I guess not. If it passes it will be over my dead body."

Governor Ralston was today urged by leading Democrats to demand the submission of the question. Among those who signed the letter were United States District Attorney Frank C. Daily, Postmaster Springsteen, former judge Remster and Charles Orblson.

While women were excluded from the senate chamber, that body today passed the Rule declaring immoral houses to be a nuisance and giving any citizen the right to enjoin and abate them by civil proceedings.

Women of the legislative council who backed the measure received a quiet tip from Lieutenant Governor O'Neill that he would hand down the bill when women had left the scene. Then they went around the chamber and whispered the word to the women spectators and the women filed out.

GORDON BENNETT FINED.

Gordon Bennett was fined $5 lars and costs this morning in police court when he entered a plea of guilty to the charge of public intoxication. It was his second offense and Mayor Bebout told him that the next time would keep him in jail for several months.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Arbuckle are moving from their home at 323 West Second street, recently sold to Mrs. Rufus P. Bowen, of Orange, to the Bebout property in North Morgan street, and will soon let the contract for a new home to be erected on their East Seventh street lot, between Main and Perkins.

BARREL BOTTLED BEER CONFISCATED

With Finding of Additional Evidence Affidavit is Filed Against Ed Wolter.

TRIAL FRIDAY AFTERNOON

Ed Wolter will be tried Friday afternoon at one-thirty o'clock on the charge of the illegal possession of intoxicating liquor as the result of the raid on his pool room and home. The police visited the Wolter residence again Saturday afternoon and took charge of a barrel of bottled beer that had just been received. It is not known whether additional charges will be filed, but the beer was taken to police headquarters.

Someone telephoned the police that a barrel of whiskey and some beer had been taken to the Wolter home, but the police found only the beer. Wolter maintains that the beer was for his private use. He was arrested on the "blind tiger" charge late Saturday evening and released on bond. The case will be heard by a jury. P. A. Miller went on his bond.

WINTERS GIRL "FOUND" AGAIN

Robert H. Abel, a Detective, Says Today She is in Convent and is Alive and Well.

MISSING NEARLY TWO YEARS

(By United Press.) Indianapolis, Ind., March 8.—The Catherine Winters mystery was "positively solved" again today. The little girl who disappeared from Newcastle, Ind., almost exactly two years ago is in a convent this time, alive and well. This was the announcement of Robert H. Abel, a detective, who returned today from a two months' search involving Birmingham, Ala., Little Rock, Ark., and St. Louis.

Catherine Winters disappeared March 20, 1913. Since then innumerable theories have been exploded and she has been "found" in every part of the United States.

NO STOCK IN STORY.

Newcastle, Ind., March 8.—When apprised of the story of Detective R. H. Abel in Indianapolis that his daughter Catherine Winters had been "found," Dr. Winters today said he did not believe it and would "take no stock" in it.

UP-TO-NOW IN DESIGN

Designs as shown by some firms are more or less freakish or fadish to attract the attention of the prospective customers with scarcely a thought of their wearing appearance or correctness in proportion. But then they are merely on paper and represent but a small loss if they don't take.

We have faith in our ability as rational designers and as proof we show at our works a most complete selection of ready to erect monuments designed by our nationally recognized designer, Mr. A. H. Schrichte.

DALE GORDON HIT BY C. H. & D. TRAIN

Is Seriously Injured in Arlington and Will Probably Lose Part of Arm as Result.

WATCHED STOPPED AT 10:20

It is likely Dale Gordon, age twenty-eight years, living west of Arlington, will recover from injuries he sustained last Friday night when he was hit by a C. H. & D. train near the M. E. church in Arlington. His right arm was almost torn off and he received several bruises. It is thought that if a difficult surgical operation is successful, part of his arm may be saved.

Very little is known of the accident as Gordon was alone at the time and was unconscious for some time after he was struck. It is thought, however, he was injured about 10:20 p. m., as his watch shows that it was stopped at that time.
The train crew probably did not know of the accident as they did not stop.
He found his way, in some manner, to the home of Charles Lightner, upon regaining consciousness, and was taken to the office of Dr. F. H. Finlaw in Arlington and later to his home.

NEARLY TWO YEARS TO SERVE IN JAIL

Delbert Newman's Sentence Imposed by Judge Sparks is Enforced After Spree.

GETS $500 AND SIX MONTHS

A little spree Saturday afternoon cost Delbert Newman his freedom and he is now in jail "laying out" a fine of $500 and six months, imposed by Judge Sparks on the charge of encouraging delinquency. When Judge Sparks sentenced Newman it was suspended during good behavior. Saturday Newman and his father, John Newman, became intoxicated and both were placed in jail.

Delbert was not even taken before Mayor Behout but was sent to the circuit court where Judge Sparks ordered the sentence enforced. The fine of $500 and six months in jail will make a total of about two years if he "lays out" the entire fine. John Newman was fined one dollar and costs by Mayor Behout on the intoxication charge.

MRS. NANNIE HELM SUCCEUMBS SUNDAY

Widow of Late Jefferson Helm Dies at Age of Seventy Years of Dropsy.

FUNERAL TO BE WEDNESDAY

Mrs. Nannie Helm, 70 years old, widow of the late Jefferson Helm, died Sunday evening shortly before six o'clock at her home, corner of Third and Harrison streets. Mrs. Helm had been in ill health for the past five or six years but had been seriously ill only since last November. Death was caused by dropsy and a complication of diseases.

Mrs. Helm was widely known here, having lived most of her life in Rushville. Mrs. Helm would have been seventy-one in April. She is survived by two children, Miss Bertha Helm and George Helm. She also leaves one sister, Mrs. Charles Landis, of Chicago.

The funeral services will be conducted Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock at the late residence by the Rev. C. M. Yocum, assisted by the Rev. V. W. Tevis. Burial will take place in East Hill cemetery.

New Treatment for Bronchitis, Asthma, Catarrh and Head Colds

Vick's "Vap-O-Rub" Salve Relieves by Inhalation and Absorption. No Dosing.
No need to take internal medicines or habit forming drugs for these troubles. When Vick's "Vap-O-Rub" Salve is applied to the heat of the body, soothing, medicated vapors are released that are inhaled all night long through the air passages to the lungs. In addition, Vick's is absorbed through the skin, relieving the tightness and soreness.

Vick's can be applied over the throat and chest and covered with a warm flannel cloth—or a little put up the nostrils—or melt a little in a spoon and inhale the vapors arising. Also for Asthma and Hay Fever, rub Vick's well over the spinal column to relax the nervous tension. 25c, 50c, or $1.00.

Hoosier Kitchen Cabinets

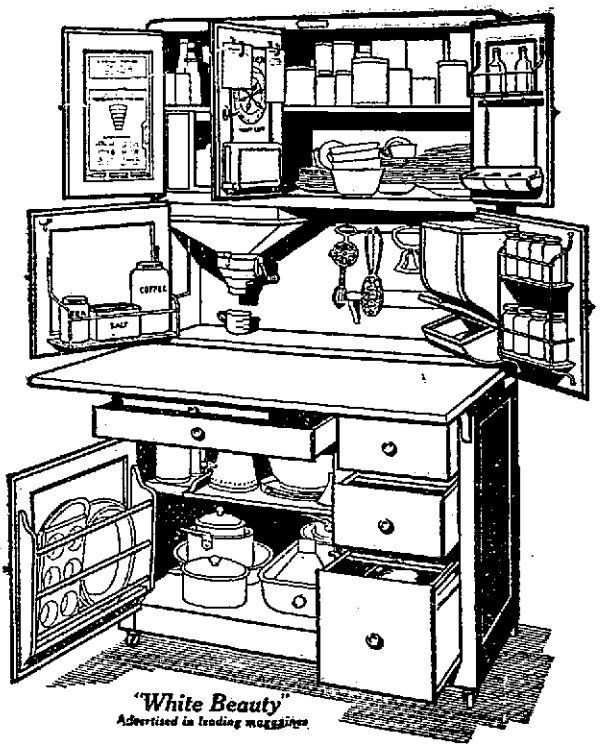

For a single dollar right now, you can have "White Beauty" the famous Hoosier Cabinet, put into your home at $2.50 less than even the low cash price fixed by the Hoosier Company; balance in small weekly dues of $1.

You can search the whole world and find nothing that saves so much labor in your kitchen. All the old features that have made the Hoosier famous in 800,000 kitchens are retained, but the new features alone that are added, without extra cost to you, are equal in themselves to the entire convenience of the average kitchen cabinet.

Here are some Exclusive Hoosier Conveniences. They will save you, records show, millions of steps.

THE REMARKABLE FLOUR BIN
You can judge the whole cabinet by the remarkable flour bin alone. This bin, all high-grade metal, is so smooth inside no flour can stick. Dust can't get in. The top is low—easy to fill. Entire top slides off for filling. The big sliding glass panel in front keeps contents visible—makes cleaning easy.
The new shaker sifter—a Hoosier patent—is a wonder. New principle entirely. Shakes flour through; doesn't grind it. Can't wear out. Can't grind grit through. Cleans the flour it sifts. Makes it fluffy and light.
Like the rest of the cabinet, every detail of this bin is perfected.

WHAT SHALL YOU COOK?
Mrs. Christine Frederick's Food Guide answers this eternal problem. Simply turn the dial to meat you like. A choice of simple menus is before you that balance perfectly with that meat.
Don't fail to see the forty other features—seventeen of them new.

This may be your last chance to buy at this saving of $2.50. Our allotment is strictly limited by The Hoosier Company. Price goes up again when these are sold. Come in right away and decide.

THE GEO C. WYATT & COMPANY

TO THE PUBLIC: We authorize this sale, limited to "White Beauty" Hoosier cabinets, at $2.50 less than the fixed cash price of these cabinets, this week only. THE HOOSIER MFG. CO., New Castle, Ind.

Richmond Feels Better Saturday Afternoon When Rushville is Finally Eliminated.

IN BASKETBALL TOURNNEY

Newcastle Wins Right to Represent District by Taking Final Game Saturday Night.

The dope bucket was not upset in the district basketball tournament at Richmond Saturday and Newcastle won the right to represent the district at the state meet at Bloomington Friday and Saturday by defeating all comers. Brookville, the "dark horse" of the tournament, did not get into the finals although she made a strong bid for place in the semi-finals when Newcastle defeated her in the last game Saturday afternoon 23 to 18.

The decisive game of the tourney was played Saturday night between Richmond and Newcastle, the latter winning in the last few minutes of play, 23 to 21.

That Rushville was a feared opponent and that Richmond fans breathed a sigh of relief when the local team went down in defeat Saturday afternoon is revealed by the comment of Richmond newspapers. Some clippings from the two papers, the Item and Palladium, show the fierceness of the play:

Starting the last half with a two point lead, the locals pulled away from their fast opponents by brilliant passing and basket shooting.

Porter, the little Napoleon, won the game for his men by shooting difficult baskets from the center of the floor.

Playing their best at the close of the first half, the Richmond high school boys forged two points ahead of Rushville, the half ending with the score 17 to 15.

The teams were evenly matched fighting every inch of floor space and stubbornly resisting every attempt at basket shooting.

Stoops, who was the cause of the elimination of Mooreland, was playing his stellar game, but was greatly handicapped by the close guarding of Davis, whose playing was one of the features of the half.

Brown and Laning were doing the scoring for Richmond.

The work of the Richmond defense was no more thorough and determined than was that of the Rushville squad, but the basket shooting eye of the R. H. S. forwards looped the ball into the baskets with greater precision. The Rushville boys could not get the range accurately.

Richmonds' first score came on a free shot by Brown after a foul by Martin. It was Brown's second shot, missing the first one, Rushville scored on free toss by Stoops after foul by Porter. Richmond scored its first field goal from jump under the basket on a "held ball," Laning slapping the ball in.

The play became fast and hard. It was one of the fiercest games of the tourney. The Richmond guards were having trouble solving the Rushville attack and breaking up the plays. The Rushville attack and system of team play was well developed and extremely effective.

Warming up to the work, the Richmond defense temporarily stopped the Rushville combinations and working nicely with the forwards, the Quaker machine soon established a several points' lead.

Johanning, Davis and Porter were doing clever work. Martin, Titsworth and Stoops were working hard. The Richmond basket shooters were taking advantage of every opportunity.

SUNDAY LEAGUE
MAY BE FORMED

Idea of Circuit Takes Favorably With Connersville, Rushville and Newcastle—Richmond Wanted.

SEMI-PRO MANAGERS MEET

Session in Interest of K. I. O. League Brings Fifty Baseball Representatives There.

A Sunday baseball circuit composed of Newcastle Connersville, Richmond, Rushville and two road teams may be formed if plans and arrangements started yesterday at the meeting of semi-pro managers in Richmond can be carried out. Newcastle, Connersville and Rushville are known to favor the plan and the only draw back is the Richmond team.

Fifty managers and men representing baseball clubs attended the meeting, which was for the purpose of getting together on the K. I. O. league proposition. The Cincinnati and Kentucky managers, representing some thirty teams came to Richmond in a special car and the meeting proved to be one of the largest of its kind ever held. The Richmond baseball club entertained the visitors in great style.

Following the meeting the Rushville, Connersville and Newcastle representatives talked over the league proposition. The Richmond directors were not very strong for the idea and in case they do not come into the league another city may be asked to come in to the organization. Manager Davidson and Manager Remington, of Connersville, were in favor of the idea. As planned the league would start about the first of June and end in September. Before and after the league the teams would play independent ball.

Tom Ritter, represented the Newcastle club and started the talk concerning a league. Newcastle was formerly in a league and found it to be the most satisfactory manner to run the club. The Richmond directors will take the question up at an early date. The club had planned to play independent ball this season and may not change the original intentions.

The meeting of the K. I. O. managers was for the purpose of getting together on several things. The managers decided in booking Cincinnati team to book only those affiliated with the K. I. O. movement. There is a similar organization conducted in the interest of a certain sporting goods store and the K. I. O. league will back this organization to the limit.

The following managers and representatives were present: John C. Ruther, Cincinnati Muldoons; William Sims and C. Kopp, Uricho club, Cincinnati; W. Weihe and Jack Benny, Weihe's All-Pros; H. Feldwisch and H. Baron, Blue Liels; S. Caldwell, Tuxedo club; H. Page, Hamilton Hoovers; S. Kennedy, Ladlow White Sox; Louis Moonberger, Goodfellowship club; C. McCarty, Goodfellowship club; V. W. Astler, secretary of K. I. O. league; Joe Dixon, president of K. I. O. league; John Spinney, Charles Becker, Perkins-Campbell; Dick Kinney, Richmond; Eli Baunitell, Spauldings; William Berning, Perkins-Campbell; Harry Huckin, Dayton Shamrock; James Dowling, Dayton Shilohs; Adam Reuhel, Dayton Reserves; Ed Davidson, A. C. Hiner, Rushville; Marion McCleery, Richmond Red Sox; Tommy Ritter, Newcastle; Eli Cates, Anderson; J. A. Remington, Connersville; J. F. Stemkamp, Richmond; J. L. Johnson, Indianapolis, Reserves; William D. Vogel, Indianapolis Taste Tells; H. Patti, Richmond; J. B. Wilkins, of Charles Carr Company, Indianapolis; R. L. Beck, of A. G. Spaulding, Indianapolis; K. L. Allison, Richmond Palladium; Lynn Shaw, Richmond Item; and Chad Cunningham, Muncie.

Fern Sale extended to March 6th. Belmont Green House, North Willow street.

CHANCES SLIM
FOR ATHLETICS

Even Most Optimistic Fans Cannot See Themselves Standing in Line For Worlds' Series Games.

INFIELD SHOT TO PIECES

Critics Say Mack is Back Where he Was Five or Six Years Ago—Still Has Barry.

(U. P. Staff Correspondent.) Philadelphia, March 8.—The well known depths of despair hold Philadelphia's hopes for a pennant this season. Even the most optimistic fans cannot see themselves standing in line for worlds' series duets next October. Both teams have had the severest shake-ups this winter in their history and only a miracle can bring either of them to the tape ahead of fourteen other teams.

The disintegration of the Athletics famous machine is the hardest blow. Philadelphia fans had come to look upon a worlds' series as an annual affair with Philadelphia—one that was theirs by divine right, or something of that sort—and the crash that shot the famous aggregation into history shook them to their toes.

The justly famous $100,000 infield now looks like thirty cents—some of the more belligerent even assert the three should be erased. The famous "Barry to Collins to McInnis" that figured daily in the box scores is gone. Quaker fans began to sit up and take notice when Bender and Plank, the two men who have brought pennants to Philadelphia year after year with their sterling performances were gone. Then came the Collins deal. That left their hopes stunned a bit more. Before they had time to recover, Frank Baker, king bee swatter of all worlds' series, announced he was through. That was the proverbial last straw.

Mack is now back where he was five or six years ago. True, he still has Barry and McInnis but the pair seems like the skeleton of a once solid structure. The addition of Larry Lajoie is going to help some, but the veteran is slowing up; he had a bad year last season with the Naps and he is viewed with some skepticism. Kopf, the little utility infielder will try to fill Baker's shoes at third, but is woefully weak. He only batted .182 in 34 games last season.

Mack had his old outfield to begin with again—Strunk, Oldering and Murphy. He is well fortified behind the plate with Lapp and Selang, but his pitching staff should cause him some worry. Bush, Pennoek, Wyckoff, Shawkey, and Bressler do not stack up favorably with the Gregg, Wood Leonard, Collins and Foster combinations which Boston boasts of nor the Cicotte, Scott Ben, Russell, Faber contingent upon which White Sox fans rest their hopes.

Another thing which is undoubtedly going to have an effect on the team. That is the absence of the four old stars. They are going to feel strange facing the enemy without them—that old confidence and cock-sureness that won them many games isn't going to be there.

The Phillies are about in the same boat with their fellow-townsmen. There, too, is the absence of old stars going to be felt. Sherwood, Magee, a Mighty Son of Swat, has gone to Boston, and his old running mate, Honus Lobert will be seen in a Giant uniform this season. Charley Doin has gone to Cincinnati. The Phils didn't have a whole lot to start the season with last year, thanks to Jim Gilmore's raiding cohorts, but they have less this season.

Killifer behind the bat is alright; he proved that last season. First base will be occupied as usual by Lauders, but that about tells the story of Pat Moran's infield. Byrne will be seen at second, but he was not a howling success last season; for short, there is Martin, who played last year, and is about in the same class. Then for third, Moran has Milton Stock, secured from the Giants in the Lobert deal, and a youngster from the Pacific Coast League who is reputed to be a comer. He answers to the name of Dave Bancroft. Stock didn't make a hit with McGraw last season and for that reason was let go. Bancroft is a recruit.

However, Moran is fortunate in having a fairly heavy hitting outfield in Paskert, Gravath and Becker. They should be able to drive in a lot of runs for him this season if they perform in anything like their usual fashion.

Alexander is the big man in Moran's hurling department. He is unquestionably one of the best flippers in the National League. Backing him up are Demaree Mayer, Tineup, Oescheger, Rixey, Baumgardner, Mattison and Jacobs. Demaree was an erratic performer last season with the Giants, but if he has a good season with the Phils they should be pretty formidable in the box. Rixey and Mayer have proven dependable men in the past.

No, Philadelphia fans are making any hopes that a pennant is coming here next season. Not hardly any.

THE SMALL FOUR $650

DETAILED SPECIFICATIONS OF THE NEW REGAL

MOTOR—The motor is 3 3/8 x 3 3/4 inches. Cylinders are cast en-bloc. Motor develops 27 h. p. on brake test.

MOTOR SUSPENSION—Supported on side rails of frame.

CYLINDERS—Best grade of Grey Iron carefully annealed and tested before and after machining. Connecting rods drop forged from best grade 40 carbon open hearth steel, double heat-treated.

CRANKSHAFT—Drop forged, from 40 carbon open hearth steel, double heat-treated; has two main bearings.

CAMSHAFT—Driven from crankshaft; both crankshaft and camshaft have improved oil retaining device.

LUBRICATION—Lower half of crank case forms oil reservoir. Lubrication system is splash. Oil is forced directly to gear case and overflows into crank case. Lower end of each connecting rod is provided with a dipper which passes through a trough full of oil at each revolution. Oil level is constantly maintained regardless of motor speed or grades.

Circulation is by thermo-syphon system. All water passages of large size and free from steam pockets.

IGNITION—Three sources of current for ignition, starting and lighting are generator, storage battery and an extra set of dry cells for emergency use.

STARTING AND LIGHTING—A thoroughly efficient starter acts directly on the crank shaft without intermediate gears. The Regal starter has from forty to sixty fewer parts than others.

Generator delivers sufficient current for all lamps at 12 miles per hour. Above this speed the excess charges the battery. Starter spins the motor 200 R. P. M.

CLUTCH—Cone with leather facing. Bearing is die-cast of special bearing metal. Clutch throw-operates with ball bearings.

DRIVE SHAFT—Is mounted on universal joint at front end. Drive shaft is enclosed in a torsion tube with ball joint at the front end pivoted to a cross-member of the frame.

TRANSMISSION—Selective type, three speeds forward and reverse. All shafts mounted on roller bearings. Removable cover plate gives access to every part.

REAR AXLE—Full floating on roller bearings. Housing has removable cover plate making it easy to take out the complete differential. Gear ratio 4 to 1.

SPRING SUSPENSION—Front springs are semi-elliptic, 34 inches long x 1 3/4 inches wide. The rear are cantilever 40 inches long x 2 inches wide.

CARBURETION—A 1 1/8 inch Stewart special carburetor of the float-feed automatic type is used. Gasoline adjustment on the dash.

FENDERS—Crown type rigidly attached to main frame. Running boards fitted with aluminum plates in front of doors.

WEIGHT—About 1800 pounds with equipment.

TIRES—30-inch x 3 1/2 inch, clincher demountable. One extra rim.

FRONT AXLE—I-beam drop forged. Axle and yoke are provided with phosphor bronze bushing. Steering rod is placed behind the axle.

BRAKES—Two sets—service brake operated by foot pedal is external contracting; emergency brake operated by pedal is internal expanding.

completely disorganized that they will be unable to 'come back.' The breweries will invest money in a 'dry' town for two years, making it as riotous as possible with the view of breaking down temperance sentiment. But when the saloons are kept out another two years the breweries give it up.

In proof of this statement Mr. Bachelor cited two other cities in the state where he had formerly lived where they kept the saloons out for four successive years. One of these cities has not had a saloon for ten years and the other has been without them for eight years.

He added: "This has been the history of such fights. In other places where they have been put out four years in succession they have been so thoroughly disorganized that they have not been able to come back in the fight.

"2. To keep them out breaks up the segregation of the element which congregates in saloons and there spreads its low ideals and corrupt morals. Keep the saloon out another two years and many of these will sink out of town to other 'wet' towns where they will find things more to their liking. This will rid us of an undesirable lawless element which will diminish crime, and lessen our taxes. But if we let the saloon back in we will drain the 'dry' territory about us of its 'wet' element, and furnish it with a place to segregate and organize.

"3. To keep them out will remove a chief factor in the corruption of local politics. There is no greater menace to democratic institutions than the segregation of an element which gathers its ideas of patriotism and citizenship from the low grog shop and which has proved its enmity to organized civil government. The saloon creates a distinctive type of politician. It stands for the worst things in political life. If the ideals of our politics are to be saved the domination of the liquor league in politics must be destroyed.

"4. To keep them out will result in making their outlawry fugitive. It is a gain to make any kind of lawlessness fugitive. It is better to drive it from cover to cover and make it gain its living by stealth. This is true of all crime. If crime were nominally fined with the understanding that it could operate with impunity under certain restrictions, crime would be encouraged. The court does not act on this theory. It outlaws the outlaw. It makes the criminal fugitive. There will always be some lawlessness connected with the handling of liquor. But if this exists in the form of 'blind tigers' it can never do the harm that it could if protected and perpetuated by a license. The license makes its corrupting presence certain. But being a fugitive it is greatly handicapped and hindered in its power to do harm."

Main Street Christian

Preliminary to his sermon yesterday morning, the Rev. C. M. Yocum made the following statement:

There are 438 names signed to the petition calling a local option election. Of these 367 did not pay one cent of taxes last year, not even poll tax. Only 71 paid taxes, just 12 paid on $1000.00 or more, 108 are on the delinquent list, 259 are not even on the duplicate and the entire list only paid $1,685.51 taxes last year. The 108 who are on the delinquent list owe the county $779.02 and 41 owe a local coal merchant for coal. Another merchant said that with a few exceptions the list read like his black list.

The Rev. Mr. Yocum preached a missionary sermon yesterday morning, it being the day set apart for foreign missions by the Christian church. His subject was: "The Call of Nantunghow." He said in part: "Nantunghow is one of the richest agricultural districts in all China—6000 square miles of territory with nearly 1,000 people to the square mile, making a population of fully 5,000,000. The region is covered with a remarkable system of canals, making travel for evangelization very easy. This section is very progressive and has never been disturbed by a revolution. We are the only mission people really proposing to occupy the field, and upon us lies the responsibility for the whole district. The leading citizen of Nantunghow is Chang Chien, who is a multimillionaire, Minister of Commerce and Agriculture for China and head of President Yuan Shi Kai's cabinet. He is the most generous and public spirited man in all China and is trying to make his city and region a model for the whole country. He has established a system of education in his district, unknown in any other part of China, with schools in city, town, village, and even open country. In Nantunghow he has built from his own private funds large normal schools for both men and women in order to train teachers for these schools. He has also built a large museum, an agricultural school, an orphanage and a hospital. He has asked our missionaries to take charge of his large orphanage with full privilege of teaching Christianity in it, and he has secured the finest piece of land in Nantunghow for our boy's school. In fact he has opened so many doors for our small force to enter that our Foreign Society is embarrassed in their inability to enter them all.

I doubt if in all the world there is a rarer opportunity to do constructive work for Christianity than there is in this district. Imagine the combined population of Ohio and Indiana packed into the state of Delaware with only one church of eighty members and three missionaries and a few helpers and a wealthy man ready to stand back of any advanced step that is to be taken and the only need of men to go and of money to send them. This is the call of Nantunghow.

Something must be done at once. Chang Chien looks to us for aid in his schools now, but he will not wait long. We must act at once.

$3000.00 FIRE PREVENTED

The House the Red Jacket Saved

Read This Letter:
"Several years ago I called on Lane & Evans to buy a pump and they almost forced me to buy one of your Fig. 28 Red Jacket Double-Acting Force Pumps and fifty feet of hose when I only intended to buy a cheap set length pump. Mr. Lane put up such strong argument on 'fire protection' that I followed his advice and bought the Fig. 28, little thinking that it would be of any service to me in that respect. Shortly after the pump was installed, my barn caught fire and had it not been for this pump and hose and the thoughtfulness of Mrs. Barnett, my barn, house and all buildings on the place would have been destroyed."

We Have Our Spring Buggies In!

and they are ready for your inspection and we extend you an invitation to call and look them over this week as it will be to your interest to make your selection between now and the closing day of our Opening. We will explain why when you come in. We have the finest buggies ever placed on a sample floor and we want you to look them over. If you need a Storm Buggy this is the correct place to get what you want. We are not selling them at a reduction of $25.00, however, but we are selling them just the same as we have all season at $100.00. We have always said that our price was just as low at any time as the cut prices of our competitors, and we are always ready to do as we advertise. When a merchant advertises he has made a cut of $25.00 on a buggy use a little common sense in forming an opinion about this like the fellow that was in a state of coma, and his friends thought he was dead, but before time to bury him he showed signs of life. When he rallied enough to talk his friends asked him how it seemed to be dead. "Dead," he exclaimed, "I knew all the time what was going on and I knew I wasn't dead, too, because my feet were cold and I was hungry and I knew that if I was in heaven I wouldn't be hungry and if I was in the other place my feet wouldn't be cold. Now if you will study out 99 per cent of the cut price argument you will see just about as much to them as there is in this little story. In other words, somebody has to be the goat, and the man that takes $25.00 off of a buggy during a sale must have a lot on when he is selling regular. Buy your buggies where the price is always the same and as low as any cut price sale ever advertised in Rush County. Let the other fellow be the goat this time.

From New, Scientific Remedy.

Mr. Chase Litterell of 830 North Arthur street, Rushville, Ind., says: "Some time ago I noticed severe pains across the small of my back. My kidneys were off in action and the kidney secretions were highly colored. I suffered continually with the backache. At night it was impossible for me to control my kidneys and I would have to get up very often. For these ills I got a box of Lloyd's Kidney and Rheumatism Tablets, the new scientific prescription. The results were fine. I was surprised that any medicine would give such quick relief. Lloyd's relieved me instantly and I have not had a return of the trouble. I am sure that others would find quick relief in Lloyd's. I did."

ARRAIGNS THE MORMON CHURCH

not one in ten men in the Mormon church practiced polygamy, but it was one of the cardinal principles of the church. He said the head of the church claims to be God's only representative on earth and the Mormon church pretends to be God's kingdom already here—the same kingdom we pray for.

Mr. Cannon told of the treaty under which Utah came into the union, which was an agreement that the Mormon church promised to discontinue the practice of polygamy and the misuse of the trust fund which was placed in its hands by the government. He charged that the covenants with the United States church had broken all of the He said the doctrine of the church taught that the more polygamous wives a man had, the more exalted he would be in heaven. He recalled that the head prophet testified before the United States senate that he had 42 children by polygamous wives and that he was not amenable to United States laws.

The ex-senator told of the last attempt to punish polygamy in Utah when the head of the church was hauled up in court on a misdemeanor charge, to which it had been reduced from a more severe charge. He said the judge quaked and said that since it was his last offense—he having been the father of 42 children already—he would fine him $300.

The former senator charged that the Mormon church had invested its holdings in great combines and that the head of the church controlled the sugar trust and the salt trust. Yet he declared, the church had never been compelled to make an accounting for the use of the fund which was placed in its hands as a trust, a privilege that was never allowed any person or institution in the United States holding a trust fund.

Last night Mr. Cannon cited some specific cases to prove that polygamy is still practiced not only by the Mormons generally but by the high priests of the church. He said that there was no way for the newspapers to publish instances of polygamous marriages because there were no proofs. Although whenever such a thing took place, the whole community knew of it, but if the case ever came into court, no one would testify to the truth because of fear of the power of the Mormon church.

He told of one case, however, which got into the newspapers. A young man, after being graduated from Harvard, returned to Salt Lake City, with some Puritanical ideas. He learned his sister had become the polygamous wife of a Mormon high priest and he promptly "beat to a pulp" the head of said high priest. Of course, this brought the case some publicity and the fact was published that it was a polygamous marriage.

"Straightway," continued the ex-senators, "the polygamous head of the church called together his polygamous board of elders and excommunicated the polygamous high priest from a polygamous church for the practice of polygamy."

He cited this case to reveal the perfidy of the system. He charged that the church spent a quarter of a million dollars to get the convention of national educators at Salt Lake

City in 1913 to impress upon them that the church did not practice polygamy.

James E. Watson was unexpectedly recalled upon last night to introduce the former senator, the two having become acquainted while members of congress. Mr. Watson paid deep tribute to the speaker, saying that the message he had was wonderful, but that the man could be seen speaking through the message all the time.

Ex-senator Cannon recalled that it was a president from Indiana, Benjamin Harrison, who repudiated the unholy alliance with the Mormon church and brought the sect to terms, and added that it might remain for another president from Indiana (bowing to Mr. Watson) to do the thing again. This was a signal for applause, as was the appearance of Mr. Watson in the pulpit.

Special music was furnished in the afternoon by a quartet composed of Miss Norma Smith, Miss Nancy Hogsett, Dr. Frank M. Sparks and Dr. Hale Pearsey, and Waggoner's orchestra. Miss Martha Hogsett was the accompanist. At night Mrs. C. F. Behr sang a solo. The Christian church was crowded to capacity at night.

Dr. James S. Martin, general superintendent of the National Reform association, with which Mr. Cannon is affiliated in his crusade against the Mormon church, was with him here yesterday. He spoke briefly at the afternoon and evening meetings and filled the pulpit at the U. P. church yesterday morning. At that time he touched briefly on the liquor question but dwelt more on the need of the Bible in the public schools and deplored the present-day tendency to secularize governmental institutions.

GERMANS TAKE TO
OFFENSIVE AGAIN

Boom of Big Guns is Shaking Region
in South Poland for First Time
in Three Weeks

ENEMY'S RETREAT A BATTLE

(By United Press.)

Petrograd, March 8.—The Germans have taken a violent offensive in southeast Poland, the war office admitted today. For the first time in three weeks the region around Opoczno and Tomasz is being shaken by the boom of big guns. The right wing of Mackensen's army west of Warsaw is delivering infantry attacks against the Russian position.

The enemy's retreat along the Pilzha has developed into a big battle overshadowing for the instant other operations in Poland. At least two German army corps are reported to be engaged. The opposing forces are encircled along the Przasnysz and Mlaza road and engaged in constant battles. Northwest of Orogno the grand duke's troops continue to make progress over the swamps.

To the Business Men of RUSHVILLE

When a good salesman goes out after business, he first puts on a clean collar and gets his shoes shined. Then he looks like more business—and he's made a flying start toward getting it. Likewise, a community can go after more business—and get it. The "clean collar and shiny shoes" of this town are the well-painted stores, the bright, cheery homes, the fresh, clean-looking buildings. The part paint plays in building up local pride cannot be put in figures—but its good effects are recorded on the local merchants' sales sheets. Buy good paint. We recommend and sell

Oliver Plows

It is a fact that every word we say about the No. 11 Oliver Sulky Plow is true, and if you have ever owned one you know we can't speak too well for this OLIVER SULKY. It is the best plow for any soil, at any time and under any conditions, that is manufactured today. Its construction is simplicity in every detail; hence it is light in weight. It is built to hug the ground; it is the only plow which successfully backs furrows, turns square corners, right or left without raising the base, and is acknowledged to be the lightest in draft and turns the soil in better condition than any other sulky plow. And I hereby challenge any manufacturer or dealer for a fair field trial that the No. 11 OLIVER SULKY is lighter in draft, will turn the soil in better condition, turn all trash under better and leave your ground in better condition than any other Sulky Plow manufactured.

We have a good stock of Oliver Sulky and Walking Plows and Repairs on hands, and invite you to call and see me, and get prices before you buy.

CAMPAIGN TO CLEAN UP CITY

Ninety-Seven Appear in Knox Circuit Court to Answer to 182 Indictments.

MOSTLY CHARGE GAMBLING

Youthful Prosecutor Who Made Open Fight Against Liberal Element Going it Alone.

(By United Press.)

Vincennes, Ind., March 8.—When ninety-seven persons appeared in the Knox circuit court today to answer to 182 indictments, most of them charging gambling, the "clean up,"
as it has been termed, of Vincennes and Knox county began in earnest.

The indictments considered today were returned by the grand jury. In a record-breaking term that body found 223 true bills. Of today's lot, 193 were for gambling. Inmates of alleged bawdy houses were represented in the remaining seventy-nine, as were saloon keepers and five young men charged with the assault of a Freelandville girl.

Joseph W. Kimmell, a mere youth in years, who openly defied the gambling element during his campaign, conducted the grand jury probe with dispatch. All the indictments were returned after a sixteen-day session. Kimmell then announced that he would play no favorites.
He is known as a fearless young man of excellent character. Shortly before his election as prosecuting attorney he married a niece of William S. Vollmer, who recently retired as treasurer of state.

Kimmell has announced that he is "going it alone" and that no significance should be attached to his connection with the Vollmer family, which for years has dominated Knox county politics. Kimmell made an "auto" campaign and had many votes to spare, though the liberal element had attacked him as incompetent.

Eighteen saloon keepers were arraigned today on charges of violating the liquor laws. Charles Tanguary, their leader, faced six indictments. Chris Eheart, another saloon keeper, charged with running a gaming house, is now in jail charged with arson, and a Bicknell saloon-keeper is charged with assault and battery with intent to kill.

Pool room proprietors who are charged with allowing minors to play and with allowing gambling devices, made up a big element among today's defendants.

The Bungalow, an alleged notorious resort situated just without the city limits on the banks of the Wabash, which never has been raided since it was established, drew its share of indictments. Charles (Doc.) Jones, husband of the mistress, forfeited his bond and his whereabouts, is unknown. Mrs. Jones pleaded today to seven indictments, including selling liquor without a license, selling to minors and statutory offenses. Every inmate of the place was indicted, but many of them have moved to Terre Haute, also on the banks of the Wabash.

Among the best known defendants today were C. C. Gosnell, ex-president of the Kitty league; Robert James, city sewer inspector; Albert Heinekamp, Republican city employe;
Charles Frederick, Republican central committeeman; Charles Tanguary, Republican politician; and John A. Cox, William Dant, Thomas Leach, Harry Williams, Samuel Whitaker and Daniel Boggs, all oil men.

It was predicted that a majority of those indicted on gambling charges would plead guilty to "gaming" and thus escape the possibility of a ten-day jail sentence with accompanies the minimum sentence for keeping or visiting a gaming house.

CRUISER PUT OUT OF ACTION

Turks Also Assert English Vessel, Too, Was Damaged in Sunday's Bombardment.

ON DARDANELLES FORTS

Shells Explode on Deck of French
Warship, Killing Many Men—
British Deny it.

BY ED L. KEENE
(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

London, March 8.—A French cruiser was put out of action and an English cruiser badly damaged during the Sunday afternoon bombardment of the Dardanelles, the Turkish war office claims in an official statement given out today and sent by wireless from Berlin.

Unofficial dispatches via Berlin confirm the Turkish claims. Turkish shells exploded on the deck of the French warship, killing many of her men. She steamed slowly out of the fighting line with her upper works in flames.

The Turkish statement follows:
"During Sunday afternoon the enemy's cruisers, including the Majestic and Irresistible, bombarded
the inner forts of the Dardanelles.
They suffered severe damage.

"A French cruiser was put out of action. An English cruiser was badly damaged. The enemy ceased firing within a few hours and withdrew. The Turkish batteries suffered no damage of any description."

British admiralty officers flatly denied the claim of the Turks. They asserted that the latest official dispatches from Vice-admiral Carden reported the allies fleets bombarding the forts at long range outside the fire of the Turk forts.

false registrations; he demanded it is charged that only men he could buy be placed on an election board.
He is alleged to have hired men to haul repeaters and to have ordered citizens who tried to block his schemes thrown into jail. He told Frank Hess, proprietor of a saloon in the tenderloin it is charged, that Hess would get 25 cents for each false registration from his saloon and told Jack Hines, another saloon-keeper that he would have to deliver 700 votes.

One of the prominent defendants is Eli Redman, judge of the circuit court, who sent Charles W. Clogston, editor of the Terre Haute Post, to jail for calling the grand jury in Judge Redman's court "gang-picked" and kept Clogston in jail for three days until Federal Judge Anderson ordered the release of the editor. The returns showed a plurality of 10 votes for Redman and his election is being contested by his opponent, Chas. W. Pulliam.

Sheriff Dennis Shea, who is a political leader of influence apart from his connection with the Roberts organization, is charged with having $100 to pay for votes. One of his deputies Peter Feiler, died of wounds
he received in an election day fight
